Dear Undersecretary LeVasseur:

The Continuing Legislative Committee on State Planning and Development is in receipt of your letter notifying the Continuing Legislative Committee that the Office of Policy and Management has in its possession an application from the Town of South Windsor for an interim change to the Conservation and Development Policies Plan for Connecticut, 2005-2010.

In accordance with Section 16a-32(b) of the General Statutes of Connecticut, the Continuing Legislative Committee on State Planning and Development hereby grants approval for the Office of Policy and Management to undertake the interim change process with regard to the current application from the Town of South Windsor.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. As always, please feel free to contact us at any time.

Sincerely,

Eric D. Coleman
State Senator
