NOMINATIONS BEING ACCEPTED FOR THIRD ROUND OF INDUCTEES TO CT HALL OF FAME

Hartford – The members of the Connecticut Hall of Fame Committee, Senators Joseph Crisco (D-Woodbridge), Sam Caligiuri (R-Waterbury) and Representatives Elizabeth “Betty” Boukus (D-Plainville), Michael Caron (R-Danielson) have announced the nomination process is now underway for the third set of inductees to the Connecticut Hall of Fame, located on the second floor break-out area of the Legislative Office Building.

Nominees must be current or former residents of Connecticut who have performed outstanding service to our state or nation. They must be eminently distinguished through their work that has brought honor or distinction to Connecticut or has contributed to our state's heritage. Posthumous nominations are also acceptable.

The second set of honorees, Marian Anderson, Harry J. Gray, Jackie Robinson and Chief Ralph Sturges were inducted into the Hall of Fame during a ceremony in June, 2008.

The members of the committee consider the Hall of Fame to be an excellent way to recognize the many achievements and contributions of individuals with ties to Connecticut. They are urging residents and organizations to submit names for consideration.

Nomination forms are also available in the Office of Legislative Management, or on the Connecticut Hall of Fame website at: <http://www.cga.ct.gov/halloffame.htm>.

The deadline for submitting nominations is Friday, November, 28, 2008. If you have any questions, you may contact D'Ann Mazzocca or Sandra Forte' at (860) 240-0100
