Bill #5144

2/17/09

The children and families program means a lot to me and my son. It helps me by giving me information on anything I need to know and it helps my son by giving him informational activities to further his development. This is the only program of its kind and I feel its needed.

Nicole Zalaski