Senator Meyer,

I am behind the current campaign to raise the minimum wage. The cost of living is becoming increasingly difficult for citizens of this country to survive. I am the owner of a small remodeling business and have seen the negative effects of a poor economy in my everyday dealings with the middle class workers. We need a boost in our economy and this would be a good start.

Sincerely,

Nick Filippo