1-11-13

Senator Doyle
My wife and I give to food pantries within this state and we feel it would be easier just to raise peoples wages so that they can provide basic needs for their families and whatever else they may need I doubt you or your family will go hungry tonight but think about the families who will and they work but its just not enough.

Sincerely
Wayne Pipke
41 Fern St
Rocky Hill CT 06067