

Helping Grandparents Raise Healthy, Hopeful Children

A conference for grandparents who find themselves raising children ... again!

A panel of experts will offer useful information on a host of issues, including the Subsidized Guardianship Program, navigating the social-service system, child psychology, child health, education, probate, and accessing other services. Bring your ideas too!

When: Tuesday, November 28, 2006, 10 a.m. to noon

Where: Room 2C, Legislative Office Building, Hartford

- Check-in and coffee/social hour, 9 to 10 a.m. at the LOB.
- Afterward: Complimentary lunch, resource booths, and tours of the Capitol.
- Bus transportation available

You have three ways to register:

1. Call AARP Connecticut at (860) 548-3163

2. Send an e-mail to: emichalowski@aarp.org

3. Mail the form below to: AARP CT, 21 Oak St., Suite 104, Hartford, CT 06106

Registration for 'Helping Grandparents to Raise Healthy, Hopeful Children'

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

E-mail address: _____ Number attending: _____

How old are your grandchildren? (We may have books for them!) _____

Check to answer yes: I need transportation I would like lunch I would like to tour the Capitol