Dear Senator Meyer
As the cost of living increases our children begin their careers with limited spending to learn how to get out in the world and begin their journey. I feel its important for them to get a rent a car etc to survive on their own. Your minimum wage doesnt even give these kids a chance

Melissa Peters