Fracking produces an enormous amount of permanently contaminated highly toxic wastewater. Connecticut should have nothing to do with fracking at all, seeing as it poses a huge public health risk and has been shown in other states to contribute to earthquakes. Please protect CT residents and completely ban all fracking wastewater.

Anna Fabis
24 Leo St
New Britain, CT 06053