lleen,
Nicholas has all the bears ow you have one as well! ay was a very sad + tional day for me + led e cancelling the weekend s (flowers, brunch, visit science center). It seemed low given our issues.
el like a man trying to a boat w/ only one oar - don't go anywhere but in
les. I've tried everything n think of but nothing s - you have made it clear that you are not y w/ me or our relationship.

Thy say the greatest love one can give another is to let them be free - to let go when it's painful to the core. That's my gift to you if it will make you happy as much as it hurts to do so.

I know you don't believe this but I've always had the best intentions for you + never wanted to hurt you. Nicholas has been a beautiful blessing for us + I thank you for his gift of love. However, just as he needs to be nurtured on a constant basis, so does our relationship. In the long run he will suffe from the lack of nurtu in our relationship. I fell in love w/ a very special person + I want only the best for you i life. Please know tha my love has been full unconditional from th start.

Love,

Goldeneyes
