

How is the recession affecting your family?

- Are you able to put enough good food on the table?
- Are your children feeling the stress of tight finances?
- Is college tuition still within reach?
- Can your teenager find a job?
- Is government responding to your needs?

State legislators want to know!

Speaker of the House Christopher Donovan's Task Force on Children in the Recession, 1st District Congressman John Larson, and the 1st District Youth Cabinet will hold a public hearing:
