Bill #221 Kate Reil 3/8/16

If we are going to say we value families we need to put our money where our mouth is and show families that we will support them in creating a work / family life balance by creating legislation that helps achieve this goal and passing it. Families are searching for relief. Please don't let us down.