OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Affected Agencies: Department of Public Works, Judicial Department

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

State and Municipal Impact:

The passage of this bill is not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact to the state or to the city of Bridgeport. The bill requires the commissioner of the Department of Public Works (DPW) to consult with the chief court administrator and select a site for the Bridgeport Juvenile Matters Detention Center by April 1, 2000. DPW, the Judicial Department and the city of Bridgeport already have been working to select a site, and the state has advertised for a location with responses due by April 15, 2000.

It also requires the state to follow the statutory eminent domain procedures currently in place. The state may already exercise its right of eminent domain if an appropriate site is not obtained through the advertising process.

A total of $23,900,000 in bond funds have been authorized for the development of a new Juvenile Matters and Detention Center in Bridgeport. The first portion of these authorizations, $500,000 for a feasibility study, was authorized in 1990. Of the total bond authorizations for this project, $23,500,500 remains unallocated.

sHB 5608

AN ACT CONCERNING SELECTION OF A SITE FOR THE JUVENILE MATTERS DETENTION CENTER IN BRIDGEPORT.

SUMMARY:

This bill requires the public works commissioner to consult with the chief court administrator and select a site for the Bridgeport Juvenile Matters Detention Center by April 1, 2000 (see COMMENT). It requires the project to be included in the state facility plan, which is a projection of the property needs for all state agencies. The plan is submitted to the Office of Policy and Management and subsequently to the State Properties Review Board.

The bill also requires the state to follow the statutory eminent domain procedures. These statutes describe when the state and municipalities can take land and provide procedures for compensating people who have an interest in the property. As required by those statutes for state condemnation cases, a state referee must determine the amount the state must pay.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2000

COMMENT

The bill is effective October 1, 2000 but it requires the selection of the Juvenile Matters Detention Center site by April 1, 2000.
