418 Sec. 15. Subsection (c) of section 15-120k of the general statutes is 419 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

420 (c) If the authority finds that an imminent peril to the public health, 421 safety or welfare requires adoption of a proposed procedure upon 422 fewer than thirty days' notice [] and states in writing its reasons for 423 such finding and the authority's board of directors, by a three-fourths 424 vote of the statutory membership, approves the finding in writing, the 425 authority may proceed without prior notice or hearing or upon any 426 abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an 427 emergency proposed procedure not later than ten days, excluding 428 Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, prior to the proposed effective date 429 of the proposed procedure. An approved emergency procedure may 430 be effective for a period of not more than one hundred twenty days

432 necessary steps to adopt a permanent procedure, including publication 433 of notice of intent to adopt, are not completed prior to the expiration

434 date of an emergency procedure, the emergency procedure shall cease 435 to be effective on that date.

436 Sec. 16. Subsection (c) of section 17a-112 of the general statutes, as 437 amended by section 4 of public act 99-166, is repealed and the 438 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

439 (c) The Superior Court, upon hearing and notice as provided in 440 sections 45a-716 and 45a-717, may grant a petition filed pursuant to 441 this section if it finds by clear and convincing evidence (1) that the 442 Department of Children and Families has made reasonable efforts to 443 locate the parent and to reunify the child with the parent, unless the 444 court finds in this proceeding that the parent is unable or unwilling to 445 benefit from reunification efforts provided such finding is not required 446 if the court has determined at a hearing pursuant to subsection (b) of 447 section 17a-110 or section 17a-111b that such efforts are not 448 appropriate, (2) that termination is in the best interest of the child, and 449 (3) that: (A) The child has been abandoned by the parent in the sense 450 that the parent has failed to maintain a reasonable degree of interest, 451 concern or responsibility as to the welfare of the child; (B) the [parent 452 of a child who] child (1) has been found by the Superior Court to have 453 been neglected or uncared for in a prior proceeding, or (2) is found to 454 be neglected or uncared for and has been in the custody of the 455 commissioner for at least fifteen months and [such] the parent of such 456 child has been provided specific steps to take to facilitate the return of 457 the child to the parent pursuant to section 46b-129 and has failed to 458 achieve such degree of personal rehabilitation as would encourage the 459 belief that within a reasonable time, considering the age and needs of 460 the child, such parent could assume a responsible position in the life of 461 the child; (C) the child has been denied, by reason of an act or acts of 462 parental commission or omission including, but not limited to, sexual 463 molestation or exploitation, severe physical abuse or a pattern of 464 abuse, the care, guidance or control necessary for such child's physical, 465 educational, moral or emotional well-being. Nonaccidental or 466 inadequately explained serious physical injury to a child shall 467 constitute prima facie evidence of acts of parental commission or 468 omission sufficient for the termination of parental rights; (D) there is 469 no ongoing parent-child relationship, which means the relationship 470 that ordinarily develops as a result of a parent having met on a day to 471 day basis the physical, emotional, moral and educational needs of the 472 child and to allow further time for the establishment or 473 reestablishment of such parent-child relationship would be 474 detrimental to the best interest of the child; (E) the parent of a child 475 under the age of seven years who is neglected or uncared for, has 476 failed, is unable or is unwilling to achieve such degree of personal 477 rehabilitation as would encourage the belief that within a reasonable 478 period of time, considering the age and needs of the child, such parent 479 could assume a responsible position in the life of the child and such 480 parent's parental rights of another child were previously terminated 481 pursuant to a petition filed by the Commissioner of Children and 482 Families; (F) the parent has killed through deliberate, nonaccidental act 483 another child of the parent or has requested, commanded, importuned, 484 attempted, conspired or solicited such killing or has committed an 485 assault, through deliberate, nonaccidental act that resulted in serious 486 bodily injury of another child of the parent; or (G) the parent was 487 convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of a sexual assault 488 resulting in the conception of the child, except a conviction for a 489 violation of section 53a-71 or 53a-73a, provided the court may 490 terminate such parent's parental rights to such child at any time after 491 such conviction.

492 Sec. 17. Subsection (c) of section 17a-498 of the general statutes, as 493 amended by section 10 of public act 99-84, is repealed and the 494 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

495 (c) The court shall require the certificates, signed under penalty of 496 false statement, of at least two impartial physicians selected by the 497 court, one of whom shall be a practicing psychiatrist, both of whom 498 shall be licensed to practice medicine in the state of Connecticut and 499 [to] shall have been practitioners of medicine at least one year and 500 shall not be connected with the hospital for psychiatric disabilities to 501 which the application is being made, or related by blood or marriage to 502 the applicant, or to the respondent. Such certificates shall indicate that 503 they have personally examined such person within ten days of such 504 hearing. The court shall appoint such physicians from a panel of 505 physicians and psychiatrists provided by the Commissioner of Mental 506 Health and Addiction Services and such appointments shall be made 507 in accordance with regulations to be promulgated by the Probate 508 Court Administrator in accordance with section 45a-77. Each such 509 physician shall make a report on a separate form provided for that 510 purpose by the Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services 511 and shall answer such questions as may be set forth on such form as 512 fully and completely as reasonably possible. Such form shall include, 513 but not be limited to questions relating to the specific psychiatric 514 disabilities alleged, whether or not the respondent is dangerous to 515 himself or herself or others, whether or not such illness has resulted or 516 will result in serious disruption of the respondent's mental and 517 behavioral functioning, whether or not hospital treatment is both 518 necessary and available, whether or not less restrictive placement is 519 recommended and available and whether or not respondent is 520 incapable of understanding the need to accept the recommended 521 treatment on a voluntary basis. Any such physician shall state upon 522 the form the reasons for his or her opinions. Such respondent or his or 523 her counsel shall have the right to present evidence and cross-examine 524 witnesses who testify at any hearing on the application. If such 525 respondent notifies the court not less than three days before the 526 hearing that he or she wishes to cross-examine the examining 527 physicians, the court shall order such physicians to appear. The court 528 shall cause a recording of the testimony of such hearing to be made, to 529 be transcribed only in the event of an appeal from the decree rendered 530 hereunder. A copy of such transcript shall be furnished without charge 531 to any appellant whom the Court of Probate finds unable to pay for the 532 same. The cost of such transcript shall be paid from funds

533 appropriated to the Judicial Department. If, on such hearing, the court

534 finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person complained of 535 has psychiatric disabilities and is dangerous to himself or herself or 536 others or gravely disabled, it shall make an order for his or her 537 commitment, considering whether or not a less restrictive placement is 538 available, to a hospital for psychiatric disabilities to be named in such 539 order, there to be confined for the period of the duration of such 540 psychiatric disabilities or until he or she is discharged or converted to 541 voluntary status pursuant to section 17a-506 in due course of law. Such 542 court order shall further command some suitable person to convey 543 such person to such hospital for psychiatric disabilities and deliver 544 him or her, with a copy of such order and of such certificates, to the 545 keeper thereof. In appointing a person to execute such order, the court 546 shall give preference to a near relative or friend of the person with 547 psychiatric disabilities, so far as it deems it practicable and judicious.
548 Notice of any action taken by the court shall be given to the 549 respondent and his or her attorney, if any, in such manner as the court 550 concludes would be appropriate under the circumstances.

551 Sec. 18. Section 19a-584 of the general statutes is repealed and the 552 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

554 individual that they may have been exposed to the [HIV] human 555 immunodeficiency virus under the following conditions: (1) The public 556 health officer reasonably believes there is a significant risk of 557 transmission to the partner; (2) the public health officer has counseled 558 the protected individual regarding the need to notify the partner and 559 the public health officer reasonably believes the protected individual 560 will not inform the partner; (3) the public health officer has informed 561 the protected individual of [his] such officer's intent to make such 562 disclosure. The public health officer may also warn or inform a partner 563 at the request of a protected individual. When making such disclosure 564 to the partner the public health officer shall provide or make referrals 565 for the provision of the appropriate medical advice and counseling for 566 coping with the emotional consequences of learning the information

567 and for changing behavior to prevent transmission or contraction of 568 HIV infection. The public health officer shall not disclose the identity 569 of the protected individual or the identity of any other partner. The 570 public health officer, making a notification, shall make such disclosure 571 in person, except where circumstances reasonably prevent doing so.
572 The public health officer shall make a good faith effort to notify the 573 partner of the risk of HIV infection. The public health officer shall have 574 no obligation to warn or inform, identify or locate any partner.

575 (b) A physician may warn or inform a known partner of a protected 576 individual if both the partner and the protected individual are under 577 the physician's care or the physician may disclose confidential 578 HIV-related information to a public health officer for the purpose of 579 informing or warning partners of the protected individual that they 580 may have been exposed to the [HIV] human immunodeficiency virus, 581 under the following conditions: (1) The physician reasonably believes 582 there is a significant risk of transmission to the partner; (2) the 583 physician has counseled the protected individual regarding the need to 584 notify the partner and the physician reasonably believes the protected 585 individual will not inform the partner; (3) the physician has informed 586 the protected individual of [his] such physician's intent to make such 587 disclosure to the partner or public health officer. The physician may 588 also warn or inform a partner at the request of a protected individual.
589 When making such disclosure to the partner the physician shall 590 provide or make referrals for the provision of the appropriate medical 591 advice and counseling for coping with the emotional consequences of 592 learning the information and for changing behavior to prevent 593 transmission or contraction of HIV infection. The physician or public 594 health officer shall not disclose the identity of the protected individual 595 or the identity of any other partner. The public health officer or 596 physician making a notification shall make such disclosure in person, 597 except where circumstances reasonably prevent doing so. Upon 598 receiving such a request for assistance, the public health officer shall 599 make a good faith effort to notify said partner of the risk of HIV 600 infection. The physician or public health officer shall have no

601 obligation to warn or inform, identify or locate any partner. The 602 physician shall have no obligation to disclose information to a public 603 health officer for the purpose of warning or informing a partner.

604 (c) For purposes of this section, "public health officer" means an 605 employee of the Department of Public Health designated by the 606 commissioner or if authorized by the commissioner, a local health 607 director, or [his] such director's designee.

608 Sec. 19. Subsection (a) of section 22-4c of the general statutes is 609 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

610 (a) The Commissioner of Agriculture may: (1) Adopt, amend or 611 repeal, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54, such 612 standards, criteria and regulations, and such procedural regulations as 613 are necessary and proper to carry out [his] the commissioner's 614 functions, powers and duties; (2) enter into contracts with any person, 615 firm, corporation or association to do all things necessary or 616 convenient to carry out the functions, powers and duties of the 617 department; (3) initiate and receive complaints as to any actual or 618 suspected violation of any statute, regulation, permit or order 619 administered, adopted or issued by [him] the commissioner. The 620 commissioner may hold hearings, administer oaths, take testimony 621 and subpoena witnesses and evidence, enter orders and institute legal 622 proceedings including, but not limited to, suits for injunctions and for

625 accordance with constitutional limitations, enter at all reasonable 626 times, without liability, upon any public or private property, except a 627 private residence, for the purpose of inspection and investigation to 628 ascertain possible violations of any statute, regulation, order or permit 629 administered, adopted or issued by [him] the commissioner and the 630 owner, managing agent or occupant of any such property shall permit 631 such entry, and no action for trespass shall lie against the 632 commissioner for such entry, or [he] the commissioner may apply to 633 any court having criminal jurisdiction for a warrant to inspect such 634 premises to determine compliance with any statute, regulation, order

641 require the posting of sufficient performance bond or other security to 642 assure compliance with any permit or order; (7) provide by notice 643 printed on any form that any false statement made thereon or 644 pursuant thereto is punishable as a criminal offense under section [53a-645 157] 53a-157b; (8) by regulations adopted in accordance with the 646 provisions of chapter 54, require the payment of a fee sufficient to 647 cover the reasonable cost of acting upon an application for and 648 monitoring compliance with the terms and conditions of any state or 649 federal permit, license, registration, order, certificate or approval. Such 650 costs may include, but are not limited to, the costs of (A) public notice, 651 (B) reviews, inspections and testing incidental to the issuance of and 652 monitoring of compliance with such permits, licenses, orders, 653 certificates and approvals, and (C) surveying and staking boundary

656 commissioner on the application. The commissioner may postpone 657 review of an application until receipt of the payment.

658 Sec. 20. Section 22a-471b of the general statutes is repealed and the
659 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

660 As used in subsection (f) of section 22a-471 and section 22a-471a, 661 "person engaged in agriculture" means a person operating a farm, as 662 defined in subsection [(g)] (q) of section 1-1, that produces agricultural 663 products for sale from which annual gross sales of one thousand 664 dollars or more from agricultural products were realized during each 665 calendar year during which pesticides were applied to an agricultural 666 or horticultural product or to the land.

667 Sec. 21. Section 31-249b of the general statutes is repealed and the 668 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

669 At any time before the board's decision has become final, any party, 670 including the administrator, may appeal to the superior court for the 671 judicial district of Hartford or for the judicial district wherein the 672 appellant resides. Any or all parties similarly situated may join in one 673 appeal. In such judicial proceeding the original and five copies of a 674 petition, which shall state the grounds on which a review is sought, 675 shall be filed in the office of the board. The chairman of the board shall, 676 within the third business day thereafter, cause the original petition or 677 petitions to be mailed to the clerk of the Superior Court and copy or 678 copies thereof to the administrator and to each other party to the 679 proceeding in which such appeal was taken; and said clerk shall 680 docket such appeal as returned to the next return day after the receipt 681 of such petition or petitions. In all cases, the board shall certify the 682 record to the court. The record shall consist of the notice of appeal to 683 the referee and the board, the notices of hearing before them, the 684 referee's findings of fact and decision, the findings and decision of the 685 board, all documents admitted into evidence before the referee and the 686 board or both and all other evidentiary material accepted by them.
687 Upon request of the court, the board shall (1) in cases in which its 688 decision was rendered on the record of such hearing before the referee, 689 prepare and verify to the court a transcript of such hearing before the 690 referee; and (2) in cases in which its decision was rendered on the 691 record of its own evidentiary hearing, provide and verify to the court a 692 transcript of such hearing of the board. In any appeal, any finding of 693 the referee or the board shall be subject to correction only to the extent 694 provided by section [519] 22-9 of the Connecticut Practice Book. Such 695 appeals shall be claimed for the short calendar unless the court shall 696 order the appeal placed on the trial list. An appeal may be taken from 697 the decision of the Superior Court to the Appellate Court in the same 698 manner as is provided in section 51-197b. It shall not be necessary in 699 any judicial proceeding under this section that exceptions to the 700 rulings of the board shall have been made or entered and no bond 701 shall be required for entering an appeal to the Superior Court. Unless 702 the court shall otherwise order after motion and hearing, the final 703 decision of the court shall be the decision as to all parties to the 704 original proceeding. In any appeal in which one of the parties is not 705 represented by counsel and in which the party taking the appeal does 706 not claim the case for the short calendar or trial within a reasonable 707 time after the return day, the court may of its own motion dismiss the 708 appeal, or the party ready to proceed may move for nonsuit or default 709 as appropriate. When an appeal is taken to the Superior Court, the 710 clerk thereof shall by writing notify the board of any action of the court 711 thereon and of the disposition of such appeal whether by judgment, 712 remand, withdrawal or otherwise and shall, upon the decision on the 713 appeal, furnish the board with a copy of such decision. The court may 714 remand the case to the board for proceedings de novo, or for further 715 proceedings on the record, or for such limited purposes as the court 716 may prescribe. The court also may order the board to remand the case 717 to a referee for any further proceedings deemed necessary by the court.

718 The court may retain jurisdiction by ordering a return to the court of 719 the proceedings conducted in accordance with the order of the court or 720 the court may order final disposition. A party aggrieved by a final 721 disposition made in compliance with an order of the Superior Court, 722 by the filing of an appropriate motion, may request the court to review 723 the disposition of the case.

724 Sec. 22. Subsection (c) of section 34-506 of the general statutes is
