

General Assembly

Substitute Bill No. 6657

January Session, 2001

AN ACT PROHIBITING EMPLOYMENT EXPLOITATION OF IMMIGRANT LABOR.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 31-4 of the general statutes is repealed and the 2 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

3 (a) The commissioner may appoint, as special agents, [of the 4 bureau,] competent persons, familiar with the language of [alien] non-
5 English-speaking laborers, who shall inform such laborers, either
6 personally or through printed matter in their language, as to their right
7 of contract under the laws of the state, and shall prevent illegal
8 advantage being taken of such laborers by reason of their [ignorance] 9 lack of knowledge, credulity or [want of knowledge of] lack of 10 proficiency in the English language. The appointment of such agents 11 shall not be permanent but simply to meet the exigencies of each case
12 as presented to the commissioner, and they shall be paid the same
13 compensation as is paid other agents. [of the bureau. The total expense 14 incurred in any one year under the provisions of this section shall not 15 exceed three hundred dollars.] Any person who obtains or receives 16 money due immigrant laborers or laborers [ignorant of] who lack 17 proficiency in the English language and retains any part thereof for 18 [his] such person's own use without giving adequate consideration 19 therefor shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or 20 imprisoned not more than one year or both.

21 (b) The commissioner shall produce printed material describing the 22 rights of immigrant laborers or laborers who lack proficiency in the 23 English language as employees under part III of chapter 557, chapters 24 558 and 567, and the commissioner shall provide such information to 25 such laborers when they apply for benefits under chapter 567 or when 26 they seek compliance with any provision under part III of chapter 557
27 or chapter 558. The commissioner shall, within available funds, make 28 such information available to the public. The commissioner shall 29 prevent illegal advantage being taken of such laborers by reason of 30 their lack of information about their rights, credulity or lack of 31 proficiency in the English language. The languages used in such 32 printed material, in addition to Spanish and French, may be those 33 languages determined by the commissioner to be spoken by the 34 primary groups of immigrant laborers in the state.

35 Sec. 2. Section 31-69a of the general statutes is repealed and the 36 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

37 In addition to the penalties provided in [part III of] chapter 557, this 38 chapter and chapter 568, any employer, officer, agent or other person
39 who violates any provision [of part III] of chapter 557, this chapter or 40 subsection (g) of section 31-288, shall be liable to the Labor Department
41 for a civil penalty of three hundred dollars for each violation of said 42 chapters and for each violation of subsection (g) of section 31-288. The 43 Attorney General, upon complaint of the Labor Commissioner, shall 44 institute a civil action to recover such civil penalty. Any amount
45 recovered shall be deposited in the General Fund and credited to a 46 separate nonlapsing appropriation to the Labor Department, for other 47 current expenses, and may be used by the Labor Department to 48 enforce the provisions [of part III] of chapter 557, this chapter and 49 subsection (g) of section 31-288 and to implement the provisions of 50 section 31-4, as amended by this act.

51 Sec. 3. Section 31-226a of the general statutes is repealed and the

52 following is substituted in lieu thereof:

53 (a) No employer shall discharge, discipline, penalize or in any 54 manner discriminate against any employee because the employee has 55 filed a claim or instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding 56 under this chapter, or has testified or is about to testify in any such 57 proceeding or because of the exercise by such employee on behalf of 58 himself or others of any right afforded by this chapter.

59 (b) Any employee who believes that [he] such employee has been 60 discharged, disciplined, penalized or otherwise discriminated against 61 by any person in violation of this section may file a complaint with the 62 Labor Commissioner alleging violation of the provisions of subsection 63 (a) of this section. Upon receipt of any such complaint, the 64 commissioner shall hold a hearing. After the hearing, the 65 commissioner shall send each party a written copy of [his] the 66 commissioner's decision. The commissioner may award the employee 67 all appropriate relief including rehiring or reinstatement to [his] such 68 employee's previous job, payment of back wages and reestablishment 69 of employee benefits to which [he] such employee otherwise would 70 have been eligible if [he] such employee had not been discharged, 71 disciplined, penalized or discriminated against. Any employee who 72 prevails in such a complaint shall be awarded reasonable attorney's 73 fees and costs. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the 74 commissioner may appeal the decision to the Superior Court in 75 accordance with the provisions of chapter 54.

76 (c) The commissioner may request the Attorney General to bring an 77 action in the Superior Court for injunctive relief requiring compliance
78 with any award, decision or judgment issued by the commissioner
79 under this section.

Statement of Legislative Commissioners:

In subsection (a) of section 1, references to "bureau" were bracketed for accuracy, since "bureau" refers to the bureau of labor statistics which was abolished in 1973.
