AN ACT CONCERNING IN-STATE TUITION FOR ACTIVE DUTY MILITARY STATIONED IN CONNECTICUT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General
Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 10a-29 of the general statutes is repealed and the
2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2005):

3 The following shall determine the status of a student:

4 (1) Every person having his domicile in this state shall be entitled to 5 classification as an in-state student for tuition purposes. Except as 6 otherwise provided in this part, no person having his domicile outside
7 of this state shall be eligible for classification as an in-state student for 8 tuition purposes;

9 (2) The domicile of an unemancipated person is that of his parent;

10 (3) Upon moving to this state, an emancipated person employed
11 full-time who provides evidence of domicile may apply for in-state
12 classification for his spouse and unemancipated children after six
13 consecutive months of residency and, provided such person is not

14 himself in this state primarily as a full-time student, his spouse and 15 unemancipated children may at once be so classified, and may 16 continue to be so classified so long as such person continues his 17 domicile in this state;

18 (4) Any unemancipated person who remains in this state when his 19 parent, having theretofore been domiciled in this state, removes from 20 this state, shall be entitled to classification as an in-state student until 21 attainment of the degree for which he is currently enrolled, so long as 22 his attendance at a school or schools in this state shall be continuous;

23 (5) The spouse of any person who is classified or is eligible for 24 classification as an in-state student shall likewise be entitled to 25 classification as an in-state student;

26 (6) A member of the armed forces who is stationed in this state
27 pursuant to military orders shall be entitled to classification as an in-
28 state student; and

29 ~~[(6)]~~ (7) An unemancipated person whose parent is a member of 30 the armed forces and stationed in this state pursuant to military orders
31 shall be entitled to classification as an in-state student. The student, 32 while in continuous attendance toward the degree for which he is 33 currently enrolled, shall not lose his residence when his parent is 34 thereafter transferred on military orders.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
Section 1	July 1, 2005	10a-29

Statement of Purpose:

To allow in-state tuition for active duty military stationed in Connecticut at the community-technical colleges, the Connecticut State University System and The University of Connecticut.
