Judiciary Committee

Title: AN ACT CONCERNING THE REGISTRATION AND SUPERVISION OF SEXUAL OFFENDERS.

Statement of Purpose: To provide more intensive supervision of sexual offenders by increasing the number of probation and parole officers who supervise sexual offenders, provide for the expansion of services provided by multidisciplinary teams and children's advocacy centers, establish a Risk Assessment Board to classify sexual offenders based on their risk of reoffending, classify certain offenses for registration purposes as criminal offenses against a victim who is a minor, require registration for certain voyeurism offenses, require registered sexual offenders to report name changes, authorize the registration of offenders prior to their release from the custody of the Commissioner of Correction, clarify the registration period for certain offenders who were registered under the pre-1998 law, require the registration of out-of-state offenders who move to this state if they were required to register in that other jurisdiction and without regard to whether they were convicted of substantially equivalent crimes that would require registration in this state, clarify registration and reporting requirements for such out-of-state offenders, and require agencies supervising sexual offenders in the community to report the number of such offenders being electronically monitored.
