

Substitute Senate Bill No. 1451

Public Act No. 07-130

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE CONNECTICUT HOMECARE OPTION PROGRAM FOR THE ELDERLY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) (a) For purposes of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act:

(1) "Depositor" means any person making a deposit, payment, contribution, gift or other deposit to the trust pursuant to a participation agreement.

(2) "Designated beneficiary" means any individual who enters into a participation agreement or is subsequently designated as a spouse or the partner to a civil union of the designated beneficiary.

(3) "Eligible home care provider" means (A) a provider licensed in Connecticut to perform home care services , (B) a homemaker or companion service that is registered with the Department of Consumer Protection, (C) licensed transportation services, or (D) a personal care assistant.

(4) "Instrumental activities of daily living" means activities related to independent living necessary to maintain an individual in their home or other noninstitutional setting, and includes, but is not limited to, adult day care, chore services, companion services, meal preparation or home-delivered meals, or transportation or homemaker services.

(5) "Participation agreement" means the agreement between the trust and depositors for participation in a savings plan for a designated beneficiary.

(6) "Qualified home care expenses" means the cost of services performed by an eligible home care provider for the instrumental activities of daily living, and the cost of any other service recommended by a physician and provided by an eligible home care provider.

(7) "Trust" means the Connecticut Home Care Trust Fund.

(b) There is established the Connecticut Homecare Option Program for the Elderly, to allow individuals to plan for the cost of services that will allow them to remain in their homes or in a noninstitutional setting as they age. The Comptroller shall establish the Connecticut Home Care Trust Fund, which shall be comprised of individual savings accounts for those qualified home care expenses not covered by a long-term care insurance policy and for those qualified home care expenses that supplement the coverage provided by a long-term care policy or Medicare. Withdrawals from the fund may be used for qualified home care expenses, upon receipt by the fund of a physician's certification that the designated beneficiary is in need of services for the instrumental activities of daily living. Upon the death of a designated beneficiary, any available funds in such beneficiary's account shall be an asset of the estate of such beneficiary.

(c) There is established an advisory committee to the Connecticut Homecare Option Program for the Elderly, which shall consist of the State Treasurer, the Comptroller, the Commissioner of Social Services, a representative of the Commission on Aging, the director of the long-term care partnership policy program within the Office of Policy and Management, and the cochairpersons and ranking members of the joint standing committees of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to human services and finance, revenue and bonding and the cochairpersons and ranking members of the select committee having cognizance of matters relating to aging, or their designees. The Governor shall appoint one provider of home care services for the elderly and a physician specializing in geriatric care. The advisory committee shall meet at least annually. The State Comptroller shall convene the meetings of the committee.

Sec. 2. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) The Comptroller, on behalf of the trust and for purposes of the trust, may:

(1) Receive and invest moneys in the trust in any instruments, obligations, securities or property in accordance with section 3 of this act;

(2) Procure insurance in connection with the trust's property, assets, activities, or deposits or contributions to the trust;

(3) Establish one or more funds within the trust and maintain separate accounts for each designated beneficiary; and

(4) Take any other actions necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act, and incidental to the duties imposed on the Comptroller pursuant to said sections.

Sec. 3. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) The Comptroller shall invest the amounts on deposit in the trust in a manner reasonable and appropriate to achieve the objectives of the trust, exercising the discretion and care of a prudent person in similar circumstances with similar objectives. The Comptroller shall give due consideration to rate of return, risk, term or maturity, diversification of the total portfolio within the trust, liquidity, the projected disbursements and expenditures, and the expected payments, deposits, contributions and gifts to be received. The Comptroller shall not require the trust to invest directly in obligations of the state or any political subdivision of the state or in any investment or other fund administered by the Comptroller. The assets of the trust shall be continuously invested and reinvested in a manner consistent with the objectives of the trust until disbursed for qualified home care expenses, expended on expenses incurred by the operations of the trust, or refunded to the depositor or designated beneficiary on the conditions provided in the participation agreement.

Sec. 4. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) The Comptroller, on behalf of the trust and for purposes of the trust, may:

(1) Establish consistent terms for each participation agreement, bulk deposit, coupon or installment payments, including, but not limited to, (A) the method of payment into the trust by payroll deduction, transfer from bank accounts or otherwise, (B) the termination, withdrawal or transfer of payments under the trust, including transfers to an eligible home care provider, (C) penalties for distributions not used or made in accordance with this section, (D) changing the identity of the designated beneficiary, and (E) any charges or fees in connection with the administration of the trust;

(2) Enter into one or more contractual agreements, including contracts for legal, actuarial, accounting, custodial, advisory, management, administrative, advertising, marketing and consulting services for the trust and pay for such services from the gains and earnings of the trust;

(3) Apply for, accept and expend gifts, grants or donations from public or private sources to enable the trust to carry out its objectives;

(4) Adopt regulations, in accordance with chapter 54 of the general

Substitute Senate Bill No. 1451

statutes, to implement the purposes of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act;

(5) Sue and be sued; and

(6) Take any other action necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act, and incidental to the duties imposed on the Comptroller pursuant to said sections.

Sec. 5. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) Participation in the trust and the offering and solicitation of the trust are exempt from sections 36b-16 and 36b-22 of the general statutes. The Comptroller shall obtain written advice of counsel or written advice from the Securities Exchange Commission, or both, that the trust and the offering of participation in the trust are not subject to federal securities laws.

Sec. 6. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2007) The state pledges to depositors, designated beneficiaries and with any party who enters into contracts with the trust, pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, of this act, that the state will not limit or alter the rights under said sections vested in the trust or contract with the trust until such obligations are fully met and discharged and such contracts are fully performed on the part of the trust, provided nothing contained in this section shall preclude such limitation or alteration if adequate provision is made by law for the protection of such depositors and designated beneficiaries pursuant to the obligations of the trust or parties who entered into such contracts with the trust. The trust, on behalf of the state, may include this pledge and undertaking for the state in participation agreements and such other obligations or contracts.

Sec. 7. Subparagraph (B) of subdivision (20) of subsection (a) of section 12-701 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2007, and applicable to
