2448 installment period and the due dates of the remaining installments 2449 shall be calculated from the due date of such first installment.

2450 Sec. 154. Subsection (e) of section 36a-563 of the general statutes is 2451 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from

2453 (e) If, as of an installment due date, the payment date of all wholly 2456 licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge not exceeding the 2457 charge applicable to the first of the installments deferred, multiplied 2458 by the number of months in the deferment period. The deferment 2459 period is that period during which no payment is made or required by 2460 reason of such deferment, except that no deferment made pursuant to 2461 this subsection shall extend the maturity of any contract made under 2462 sections 36a-555 to 36a-573, inclusive, for more than (1) three months, 2469 subsection (a) of this section applicable to each deferred balance and 2470 installment period following the deferment period shall remain the 2473 collected, or on account of which any partial payment has been made, 2474 shall be deferred or included in the computation of the deferment 2475 charge unless such default charge or partial payment is refunded to the 2476 borrower or credited to the deferment charge. Any payment received 2477 at the time of deferment may be applied first to the deferment charge 2478 and the remainder, if any, applied to the unpaid balance of the 2479 contract, but if such payment is sufficient to pay, in addition to the 2480 appropriate deferment charge, any installment which is in default and 2481 the applicable default charge, it shall be first so applied and any such 2482 installment shall not be deferred or subject to the deferment charge. If 2483 a loan is prepaid in full during the deferment period, the borrower 2484 shall receive, in addition to the refund required under subsection (f) of 2485 this section, a refund of that portion of the deferment charge applicable 2486 to any unexpired full month or months of such deferment period.

2823 (a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, in a 2824 successful foreign-money claim, a judgment or arbitration award shall 2825 be stated in an amount of the money of the claim.

2826 (b) The judgment is payable in that foreign money or, at the option 2827 of the judgment debtor, in the amount of United States dollars which 2828 will purchase that foreign money on the conversion date.

2829 (c) Assessed costs shall be entered in United States dollars.

2830 (d) Each payment in United States dollars shall be accepted and 2831 credited on the judgment in the amount of the foreign money that 2832 could be purchased by the dollars at a bank-offered spot rate of 2833 exchange at or near the close of business on the conversion date for 2834 that payment.

2835 (e) Awards made on both (1) a defense, set-off, recoupment or 2836 counterclaim, and (2) the adverse party's claim, shall be netted by 2837 converting the moneys of the smaller award into the money of the 2838 larger and by subtracting the smaller from the larger, as if a payment 2839 had occurred on the date of the most recent award, and shall provide 2840 in the judgment the rates of exchange used.

2841 (f) A judgment substantially in the following form complies with 2842 subsection (a) [.] of this section:

2843 IT IS ADJUDGED AND ORDERED, THAT Defendant (insert name)
2844 pay to Plaintiff (insert name) the sum of (insert amount in the foreign 2845 money) plus interest on that sum at the rate of (insert rate as provided 2846 in section 50a-59) per cent a year or, at the option of the judgment 2847 debtor, such number of United States dollars as will purchase the 2848 (insert name of foreign money) with interest due, at a bank-offered 2849 spot rate at or near the close of business on the banking day next 2850 before the day of payment, together with assessed costs of (insert 2851 amount) United States dollars.

2852 (g) A judgment shall be recorded and indexed in the foreign money 2853 in the same manner and shall have the same effect as a lien as other 2854 judgments. It may be discharged by payment.

2855 Sec. 185. Subsection (b) of section 50a-59 of the general statutes is 2856 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 2857 passage):

2858 (b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, an increase or 2859 decrease in calculated prejudgment interest may be made in a foreign-2860 money claim to the extent required by the law of this state applicable 2861 in an action or distribution proceeding for United States dollars, if 2862 there is a failure to make or accept an offer of settlement, an offer of 2863 judgment, or conduct by a party or its attorney causing undue delay or 2864 expense.

2865 Sec. 186. Subsection (a) of section 51-14 of the general statutes is 2866 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 2867 passage):

2868 (a) The judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Appellate 2869 Court, and the judges of the Superior Court shall adopt and 2870 promulgate and may from time to time modify or repeal rules and 2871 forms regulating pleading, practice and procedure in judicial

2872 proceedings in courts in which they have the constitutional authority 2873 to make rules, for the purpose of simplifying proceedings in the courts 2874 and of promoting the speedy and efficient determination of litigation 2875 upon its merits. The rules of the Appellate Court shall be as consistent 2876 as feasible with the rules of the Supreme Court to promote uniformity 2877 in the procedure for the taking of appeals and may dispense, so far as 2878 justice to the parties will permit while affording a fair review, with the 2879 necessity of printing of records and briefs. Such rules shall not abridge, 2880 enlarge or modify any substantive right [nor] or the jurisdiction of any 2881 of the courts. Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, 2882 such rules shall become effective on such date as the judges specify but 2883 not in any event until sixty days after such promulgation.

2884 Sec. 187. Subsection (c) of section 51-51k of the general statutes is 2885 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 2886 passage):

2887 (c) On and after December 1, 1992, members shall be appointed in 2888 accordance with subsection (a) of this section as follows: One judge 2889 shall be appointed for a term of two years, one judge shall be 2890 appointed for a term of three years and one judge shall be appointed 2891 for a term of four years; one attorney shall be appointed for a term of 2892 two years, one attorney shall be appointed for a term of three years 2893 and one attorney shall be appointed for a term of four years; two lay 2894 members shall be appointed for terms of two years, two lay members 2895 shall be appointed for terms of three years, and two lay members shall 2896 be appointed for terms of four years. Thereafter, members shall serve 2897 for terms of four years. Members may continue in office until a 2898 successor is appointed and qualified. No member appointed on or 2899 after December 1, 1992, may serve consecutive terms, and if the 2900 member is an attorney, no member of his or her firm may serve a term 2901 consecutive to such member, provided no member may serve for more 2902 than two terms. Vacancies on the council shall be filled for the 2903 unexpired portion of any term in the same manner as the original 2904 appointment. Any member who is a judge, family support magistrate

2905 or compensation commissioner and retires from full-time active service 2906 as a judge, family support magistrate or compensation commissioner 2907 shall automatically cease to be a member of the council, and a vacancy 2908 shall be deemed to occur. Alternate members shall be appointed for 2909 terms of three years and shall not serve consecutive terms as alternate 2910 members.

2911 Sec. 188. Subsection (g) of section 51-90g of the general statutes is 2912 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 2913 passage):

2914 (g) If, after its review of a complaint pursuant to this section, a 2915 subcommittee agrees with the determination of the grievance panel 2916 that probable cause does not exist that the attorney is guilty of 2917 misconduct and there has been no finding of probable cause by the 2918 State-Wide Grievance Committee or a subcommittee, the 2919 subcommittee may dismiss the complaint within the time period set 2920 forth in subsection (c) of this section without review by the committee.
2921 The subcommittee shall file its decision dismissing the complaint with 2922 the State-Wide Grievance Committee, together with the record of the 2923 matter, and shall send a copy of the decision to the complainant and 2924 the respondent. Such decision shall be a matter of public record.

2926 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 2927 passage):

2928 (a) Each full-time employed juror shall be paid regular wages by the 2929 juror's employer for the first five days, or part thereof, of jury service.
2930 Such payment shall be subject to the requirements of section 31-71b 2931 and any employer who violates this section shall be subject to the 2932 provisions of sections 31-71g and 31-72. A person shall not be 2933 considered a full-time employed juror on any day of jury service in 2934 which such person (1) would not have accrued regular wages to be 2935 paid by the employer if such person were not serving as a juror on that 2936 day, or (2) would not have worked more than one-half of a shift which 2937 extends into another day if such person were not serving as a juror on 2938 that day. Each juror not considered a full-time employed juror on a 2939 particular day of jury service pursuant to subdivision (1) or (2) of this 2940 subsection shall be reimbursed by the state for necessary out-of-pocket 2941 expenses incurred during that day of jury service, provided such day 2942 of service is within the first five days, or part thereof, of jury service.

2943 Each part-time employed juror and unemployed juror shall be 2944 reimbursed by the state for necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred 2945 during the first five days, or part thereof, of jury service. Necessary 2946 out-of-pocket expenses shall include, but not be limited to, twenty 2947 cents for each mile of travel from the juror's place of residence to the 2948 place of holding the court and return, and shall exclude food. The 2949 mileage shall be determined by the shortest direct route either by 2950 highway or by any regular line of conveyance between the points. A 2951 reimbursement award under this subsection for each day of service 2952 shall not be less than twenty dollars [nor] or more than fifty dollars.
2953 For the purposes of this subsection, "full-time employed juror" means 2954 an employee holding a position normally requiring thirty hours or 2955 more of service in each week, which position is neither temporary nor 2956 casual, and includes an employee holding a position through a 2957 temporary help service, as defined in section 31-129, which position 2958 normally requires thirty hours or more of service in each week, who 2959 has been working in that position for a period exceeding ninety days, 2960 and "part-time employed juror" means an employee holding a position 2961 normally requiring less than thirty hours of service in each week or an 2962 employee working on a temporary or casual basis. In the event that a 2963 juror may be considered to be both a full-time employed juror and a 2964 part-time employed juror for any day of the first five days, or part 2965 thereof, of jury service, such juror shall, for the purposes of this 2966 section, be considered to be a full-time employed juror only.

2967 Sec. 190. Section 51-247c of the general statutes is repealed and the 2968 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

2969 (a) Upon written application on a form prescribed by the Office of 2970 the Chief Court Administrator, the court may excuse (1) an employer 2971 from the duty to compensate a juror-employee, or (2) a self-employed 2972 juror from the duty to compensate himself or herself. In such instances, 2973 the court shall make a finding that extreme financial hardship would 2974 be imposed if such duty were not removed. If an employer or self-2975 employed juror is so excused from making payment, the court shall 2976 award to the juror the amount the court finds to be the juror's regular 2977 wages, to be paid by the state, for the first five days, or part thereof, of 2978 juror service but in no event shall such award exceed fifty dollars per 2979 day.

2980 (b) The Jury Administrator shall mail or the clerk of the court shall 2981 give the waiver applications as provided for in subsection (a) of this 2982 section and juror service certificates to jurors who have performed 2983 juror service. The Office of the Chief Court Administrator may 2984 combine into one form the waiver application and the juror service 2985 certificate. The juror service certificate shall contain: (1) The name and 2986 address of the juror; (2) the court location in which the juror service 2987 was performed; (3) the number of days of juror service performed by 2988 the juror and the specific dates thereof; (4) the total compensation 2989 received by the juror for the period of juror service involved; (5) a 2990 declaration of the duty of an employer to compensate a juror-employee 2991 for the first five days or part thereof of juror service; (6) the right of an 2992 employer to be excused from such duty by the court upon a finding of 2993 extreme financial hardship; and (7) any other information which the 2994 Jury Administrator deems appropriate. Each juror service certificate 2995 shall be completed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be for the 2996 juror and one copy of which shall be for the employer of the juror. A 2997 juror who seeks compensation from [his] the juror's employer for juror 2998 service shall tender the employer's copy of the juror service
2999 [certification] certificate and the waiver application to [his] the juror's 3000 employer as soon as practicable after its receipt.

3001 (c) An employer may file a waiver application not later than fifteen 3002 days after its receipt by the employer. The waiver application shall be 3003 submitted to the court location where the juror served. If an 3004 application is denied, the party making the application may apply for a 3005 hearing no later than twenty days from the date of the finding by the 3006 court.

3007 Sec. 191. Subsection (a) of section 52-225a of the general statutes is 3008 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3009 passage):

3010 (a) In any civil action, whether in tort or in contract, wherein the 3011 claimant seeks to recover damages resulting from (1) personal injury or 3012 wrongful death occurring on or after October 1, 1987, or (2) personal 3013 injury or wrongful death, arising out of the rendition of professional 3014 services by a health care provider, occurring on or after October 1, 3015 1985, and prior to October 1, 1986, if the action was filed on or after 3016 October 1, 1987, and wherein liability is admitted or is determined by 3017 the trier of fact and damages are awarded to compensate the claimant, 3018 the court shall reduce the amount of such award which represents 3019 economic damages, as defined in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of 3020 section 52-572h, by an amount equal to the total of amounts 3021 determined to have been paid under subsection (b) of this section less 3022 the total of amounts determined to have been paid under subsection 3023 (c) of this section, except that there shall be no reduction for [(1)] (A) a 3024 collateral source for which a right of subrogation exists, and [(2) that] 3025 (B) the amount of collateral sources equal to the reduction in the 3026 claimant's economic damages attributable to [his] the claimant's 3027 percentage of negligence pursuant to section 52-572h.

3028 Sec. 192. Subsection (d) of section 54-56e of the general statutes is 3029 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from 3030 passage):

3031 (d) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, any 3032 defendant who enters such program shall pay to the court a 3033 participation fee of one hundred dollars. Any defendant who enters 3034 such program shall agree to the tolling of any statute of limitations

3035 with respect to such crime and to a waiver of the right to a speedy trial.
3036 Any such defendant shall appear in court and shall, under such 3037 conditions as the court shall order, be released to the custody of the 3038 Court Support Services Division, except that, if a criminal docket for 3039 drug-dependent persons has been established pursuant to section 3040 51-181b in the judicial district, such defendant may be transferred, 3041 under such conditions as the court shall order, to the court handling 3042 such docket for supervision by such court. If the defendant refuses to 3043 accept, or, having accepted, violates such conditions, the defendant's 3044 case shall be brought to trial. The period of such probation or 3045 supervision, or both, shall not exceed two years. The court may order 3046 that as a condition of such probation the defendant participate in the 3047 zero-tolerance drug supervision program established pursuant to 3048 section 53a-39d. If the defendant has reached the age of sixteen years 3049 but has not reached the age of eighteen years, the court may order that 3050 as a condition of such probation the defendant be referred for services 3051 to a youth service bureau established pursuant to section [17a-39] 10-3052 19m, provided the court finds, through an assessment by a youth 3053 service bureau or its designee, that the defendant is in need of and 3054 likely to benefit from such services. When determining any conditions 3055 of probation to order for a person entering such program who was 3056 charged with a misdemeanor that did not involve the use, attempted 3057 use or threatened use of physical force against another person or a 3058 motor vehicle violation, the court shall consider ordering the person to 3059 perform community service in the community in which the offense or 3060 violation occurred. If the court determines that community service is 3061 appropriate, such community service may be implemented by a 3062 community court established in accordance with section 51-181c if the 3063 offense or violation occurred within the jurisdiction of a community 3064 court established by said section. If the defendant is charged with a 3065 violation of section 46a-58, 53-37a, 53a-181j, 53a-181k or 53a-181l, the 3066 court may order that as a condition of such probation the defendant 3067 participate in a hate crimes diversion program as provided in 3068 subsection (e) of this section. If a defendant is charged with a violation 3069 of section 53-247, the court may order that as a condition of such 3070 probation the defendant undergo psychiatric or psychological 3071 counseling or participate in an animal cruelty prevention and 3072 education program provided such a program exists and is available to 3073 the defendant.

3074 Sec. 193. Section 54-82l of the general statutes is repealed and the 3075 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

3076 In accordance with the provisions of section 51-14, the judges of the 3077 Superior Court shall make such rules as they deem necessary to 3078 provide a procedure to assure a speedy trial for any person charged 3079 with a criminal offense on or after July 1, 1983. Such rules shall provide 3080 that (1) in any case in which a plea of not guilty is entered, the trial of a 3081 defendant charged in an information or indictment with the 3082 commission of a criminal offense shall commence within eighteen
3083 months from the filing date of the information or indictment or from 3084 the date of the arrest, whichever is later, except that when such 3085 defendant is incarcerated in a correctional institution of this state
3086 pending such trial and is not subject to the provisions of section 54-82c, 3087 the trial of such defendant shall commence within twelve months from 3088 the filing date of the information or indictment or from the date of the 3089 arrest, whichever is later; and (2) if a defendant is not brought to trial
3090 within the time limit set forth in subdivision (1) of this section and a 3091 trial is not commenced within thirty days of a motion for a speedy trial 3092 made by the defendant at any time after such time limit has passed, the 3093 information or indictment shall be dismissed. Such rules shall include 3094 provisions to identify periods of delay caused by the action of the 3095 defendant, or the defendant's inability to stand trial, to be excluded in 3096 computing the time limits set forth in subdivision (1) of this section.

3097 Sec. 194. Section 54-82m of the general statutes is repealed and the 3098 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

3099 In accordance with the provisions of section 51-14, the judges of the 3100 Superior Court shall make such rules as they deem necessary to 3101 provide a procedure to assure a speedy trial for any person charged

3102 with a criminal offense on or after July 1, 1985. Such rules shall provide 3103 that (1) in any case in which a plea of not guilty is entered, the trial of a 3104 defendant charged in an information or indictment with the 3105 commission of a criminal offense shall commence within twelve 3106 months from the filing date of the information or indictment or from 3107 the date of the arrest, whichever is later, except that when such 3108 defendant is incarcerated in a correctional institution of this state
 3109 pending such trial and is not subject to the provisions of section 54-82c, 3110 the trial of such defendant shall commence within eight months from 3111 the filing date of the information or indictment or from the date of 3112 arrest, whichever is later; and (2) if a defendant is not brought to trial
 3113 within the time limit set forth in subdivision (1) of this section and a
 3114 trial is not commenced within thirty days of a motion for a speedy trial 3115 made by the defendant at any time after such time limit has passed, the
 3117 provisions to identify periods of delay caused by the action of the 3118 defendant, or the defendant's inability to stand trial, to be excluded in 3119 computing the time limits set forth in subdivision (1) of this section.
