17 a member of an arbitration organization and shall serve [without] with 18 compensation. [for terms of two years at the discretion of the 19 commissioner. In lieu of referring an arbitration dispute to a panel 20 established under the provisions of this section, the] The Department 21 of Consumer Protection may refer an arbitration dispute to the 22 American Arbitration Association or other arbitration organization in 23 accordance with regulations adopted in accordance with the 24 provisions of chapter 54, provided such organization and any 25 arbitrators appointed by such organization to hear cases shall not be 26 affiliated with any motor vehicle manufacturer, distributor, dealer or 27 repairer. Such arbitration organizations shall comply with the 28 provisions of subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

29 (b) If any motor vehicle purchased at any time on or after October 1, 30 1984, or leased at any time on or after June 17, 1987, fails to conform to 31 such applicable warranties as defined in said section 42-179, a 32 consumer may bring a grievance to an [arbitration panel] arbitrator if 33 the manufacturer of the vehicle has not established an informal dispute 34 settlement procedure which the Attorney General has certified as 35 complying in all respects with the requirements of said section 42-179.
36 The consumer may initiate a request for arbitration by calling a toll-37 free telephone number designated by the commissioner or by 38 requesting an arbitration hearing in writing. The consumer shall file, 39 on forms prescribed by the commissioner, any information deemed 40 relevant to the resolution of the dispute and shall return the form 41 accompanied by a filing fee of fifty dollars. [Such complaint form shall 42 offer the consumer a choice of presenting any subsequent testimony 43 orally or in writing.] Prior to submitting the complaint to an 44 [arbitration panel] arbitrator, the Department of Consumer Protection 45 shall conduct an initial review of the complaint. The department shall 46 determine whether the complaint should be accepted or rejected for 47 arbitration based on whether it alleges that the manufacturer has failed 48 to comply with section 42-179. The filing fee shall be refunded if the 49 department determines that a complaint does not allege a violation of 50 any applicable warranty under the requirements of said section 42-179.

51 Upon acceptance of the complaint, the commissioner shall notify the 52 manufacturer of the filing of a request for arbitration and shall obtain 53 from the manufacturer, in writing on a form prescribed by the 54 commissioner, any information deemed relevant to the resolution of 55 the dispute. The manufacturer shall return the form within fifteen days 56 of receipt, together with a filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars. Upon 57 written agreement of the parties, the case may be presented to the 58 arbitrator solely based on the written documents submitted by such 59 parties. A lessee who brings a grievance to an [arbitration panel] 60 arbitrator under this section shall, upon filing the complaint form 61 provided for in this section, provide the lessor with notice by 62 registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and the lessor 63 may petition the [arbitration panel] arbitrator to be made a party to the 64 arbitration proceedings. Initial determinations to reject a complaint for 65 arbitration shall be submitted to an [arbitration panel] arbitrator for a 66 final decision upon receipt of a written request from the consumer for 67 a review of the initial eligibility determination and a filing fee of fifty 68 dollars. If a complaint is accepted for arbitration, an [arbitration panel] 69 arbitrator may determine that a complaint does not allege that the 70 manufacturer has failed to comply with section 42-179 at any time 71 before such [panel] arbitrator renders its decision on the merits of the 72 dispute. The fee accompanying the consumer's complaint form shall be 73 refunded to the consumer and the fee accompanying the form filed by 74 the manufacturer shall be refunded to the manufacturer if the 75 [arbitration panel] arbitrator determines that a complaint does not 76 allege a violation of the provisions of section 42-179.

77 (c) The Department of Consumer Protection shall investigate, gather 78 and organize all information necessary for a fair and timely decision in 79 each dispute. The commissioner may issue subpoenas on behalf of any 80 [arbitration panel] arbitrator to compel the attendance of witnesses and 81 the production of documents, papers and records relevant to the 82 dispute. The department shall forward a copy of all written testimony, 83 including all documentary evidence, to an independent technical

84 expert certified by the National Institute of Automotive Service
85 Excellence or having a degree or other credentials from a nationally 86 recognized organization or institution attesting to automotive 87 expertise, who shall review such material and be available to advise 88 and consult with the [arbitration panel] arbitrator. An expert shall sit 89 as a nonvoting member of an arbitration panel whenever oral 90 testimony is presented. Such experts may be recommended by the 91 Commissioner of Motor Vehicles at the request of the Commissioner of 92 Consumer Protection. An [arbitration panel] arbitrator shall, as 93 expeditiously as possible, but not later than sixty days after the time 94 the consumer files the complaint form together with the filing fee, 95 render a fair decision based on the information gathered and disclose 96 [its] his or her findings and the reasons therefor to the parties involved.
97 The failure of the [arbitrators] arbitrator to render a decision within 98 sixty days shall not void any subsequent decision or otherwise limit
99 the powers of the [arbitrators] arbitrator. The [arbitration panel] 100 arbitrator shall base [its] his or her determination of liability solely on 101 whether the manufacturer has failed to comply with section 42-179.
102 The arbitration decision shall be final and binding as to the rights of 103 the parties pursuant to section 42-179, subject only to judicial review as 104 set forth in this subsection. The decision shall provide appropriate 105 remedies, including, but not limited to one or more of the following:

106 (1) Replacement of the vehicle with an identical or comparable new 107 vehicle acceptable to the consumer;

108 (2) Refund of the full contract price, plus collateral charges as 109 specified in subsection (d) of said section 42-179;

110 (3) Reimbursement for expenses and compensation for incidental 111 damages as specified in subsection (d) of said section 42-179;

112 (4) Any other remedies available under the applicable warranties, 113 section 42-179, this section and sections 42-182 to 42-184, inclusive, or 114 the Magnuson-Moss Warranty-Federal Trade Commission
115 Improvement Act, 88 Stat. 2183 (1975), 15 USC 2301 et seq., as in effect

116 on October 1, 1982, other than repair of the vehicle. The decision shall 117 specify a date for performance and completion of all awarded 118 remedies. Notwithstanding any provision of the general statutes or 119 any regulation to the contrary, the Department of Consumer Protection 120 shall not amend, reverse, rescind or revoke any decision or action of an 121 [arbitration panel] arbitrator. The department shall contact the 122 consumer, within ten working days after the date for performance, to 123 determine whether performance has occurred. The manufacturer shall 124 act in good faith in abiding by any arbitration decision. In addition, 125 either party to the arbitration may make application to the superior 126 court for the judicial district in which one of the parties resides or, 127 when the court is not in session, any judge thereof for an order 128 confirming, vacating, modifying or correcting any award, in 129 accordance with the provisions of this section and sections 52-417, 52-130 418, 52-419 and 52-420. Upon filing such application the moving party 131 shall mail a copy of the application to the Attorney General and, upon 132 entry of any judgment or decree, shall mail a copy of such judgment or 133 decree to the Attorney General. A review of such application shall be 134 confined to the record of the proceedings before the [arbitration panel] 135 arbitrator. The court shall conduct a de novo review of the questions of 136 law raised in the application. In addition to the grounds set forth in 137 sections 52-418 and 52-419, the court shall consider questions of fact 138 raised in the application. In reviewing questions of fact, the court shall 139 uphold the award unless it determines that the factual findings of the 140 [arbitrators] arbitrator are not supported by substantial evidence in the 141 record and that the substantial rights of the moving party have been 142 prejudiced. If the [arbitrators fail] arbitrator fails to state findings or 143 reasons for the award, or the stated findings or reasons are inadequate, 144 the court shall search the record to determine whether a basis exists to 145 uphold the award. If it is determined by the court that the 146 manufacturer has acted without good cause in bringing an appeal of 147 an award, the court, in its discretion, may grant to the consumer his 148 costs and reasonable attorney's fees. If the manufacturer fails to 149 perform all awarded remedies by the date for performance specified 150 by the [arbitrators] arbitrator, and the enforcement of the award has

151 not been stayed pursuant to subsection (c) of section 52-420, then each 152 additional day the manufacturer wilfully fails to comply shall be 153 deemed a separate violation for purposes of section 42-184.

154 (d) The department shall maintain such records of each dispute as 155 the commissioner may require, including an index of disputes by 156 brand name and model. The department shall annually compile and 157 maintain statistics indicating the record of manufacturer compliance 158 with arbitration decisions and the number of refunds or replacements 159 awarded. A copy of the statistical summary shall be filed with the 160 Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and shall be considered [by him] a 161 factor in determining the issuance of any manufacturer license as 162 required under section 14-67a. The summary shall be a public record.

163 (e) If a manufacturer has not established an informal dispute
164 settlement procedure certified by the Attorney General as complying 165 with the requirements of said section 42-179, public notice of the 166 availability of the department's automobile dispute settlement 167 procedure shall be prominently posted in the place of business of each 168 new car dealer licensed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to 169 engage in the sale of such manufacturer's new motor vehicles. Display 170 of such public notice shall be a condition of licensure under sections 171 14-52 and 14-64. The Commissioner of Consumer Protection shall 172 determine the size, type face, form and wording of the sign required 173 by this section, which shall include the toll-free telephone number and 174 the address to which requests for the department's arbitration services 175 may be sent.

176 (f) Any consumer injured by the operation of any procedure which 177 does not conform with procedures established by a manufacturer
178 pursuant to subsection (b) of section 42-182 and the provisions of Title
179 16 Code of Federal Regulations Part 703, as in effect on October 1, 1982, 180 may appeal any decision rendered as the result of such a procedure by 181 requesting arbitration de novo of the dispute by an [arbitration panel] 182 arbitrator. Filing procedures and fees for appeals shall be the same as 183 those required in subsection (b) of this section. The findings of the 184 manufacturer's informal dispute settlement procedure may be 185 admissible in evidence at such arbitration [panel hearing] and in any 186 civil action subsequently arising out of any warranty obligation or 187 matter related to the dispute. Any consumer so injured may, in 188 addition, request the Attorney General to investigate the 189 manufacturer's procedure to determine whether its certification shall 190 be suspended or revoked after proper notice and hearing. The 191 Attorney General shall establish procedures for processing such 192 consumer complaints and maintain a record of the disposition of such 193 complaints, which record shall be included in the annual report

194 prepared in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a) of section 195 42-182.

196 (g) The Commissioner of Consumer Protection shall adopt 197 regulations, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54, to carry 198 out the purposes of this section. Written copies of the regulations and 199 appropriate arbitration hearing procedures shall be provided to any 200 person upon request.

201 Sec. 502. Section 14-12r of the general statutes is repealed and the 202 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2007):

203 Before issuing registration for any motor vehicle that has not been 204 previously registered in this state, except a new motor vehicle, the 205 Commissioner of Motor Vehicles may require an inspection of the 206 manufacturer's vehicle identification number. Such an inspection may 207 be performed at any designated official emissions inspection station or 208 by any other business or firm authorized by the commissioner to 209 perform safety inspections in accordance with sections 14-12 and 14-210 16a or by any motor vehicle dealer or repairer, licensed in accordance 211 with section 14-52 and meeting qualifications established by the 212 commissioner. If the inspection is performed by a licensed dealer or 213 repairer, and is not performed in connection with an official emissions 214 inspection, such dealer or repairer may charge a fee to the owner in an 215 amount not to exceed twenty dollars, provided an affidavit [shall be] 216 relating to such inspection is furnished to the commissioner in 217 accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of section 14-99h."
