

TESTIMONY

of the

CONNECTICUT CONFERENCE OF MUNICIPALITIES

to the

PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

March 3, 2008

The Connecticut Conference of Municipalities appreciates the opportunity to testify on the following bill of interest to towns and cities:

R.B. 373, "An Act Concerning the Collection of Delinquent Property Taxes on Motor Vehicles"

CCM urges the Committee to clarify the bill so that, if a municipality makes a good faith attempt to reach a property owner within the 3-year period (and is unsuccessful), such attempt would still be considered legitimate.
