Re: Governor's bill 6375: Review and termination of certain boards and commissions

Dear Gayle;

I write to you regarding this bill and request this letter be included in its legislative history. This bill abolishes the Connecticut Citizens Advisory Committee on Housing Matters ("CACHM") (lines 21-22)

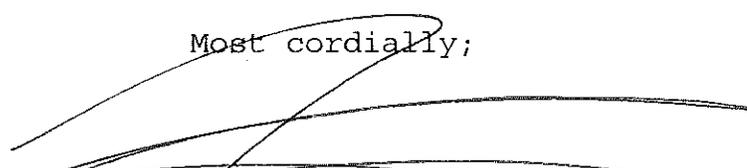

I have been a member of the CACHM for many years since Governor Weiker appointed me. The CACHM is an entirely voluntary board which has:

- No paid staff
- No premises
- No budget

Yet the CACHM is active and performs well. It develops forms. It develops guidebooks. It interviews judges who express an interest in being assigned to housing matters.

In short, the CACHM costs nothing and contributed to the State of Connecticut. It should not be abolished.

Most cordially;

Houston Putnam Lowry
