After the last section, add the following and renumber sections and internal references accordingly:

"Sec. 501. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2009) (a) No person, as defined in section 42-110a of the general statutes, shall use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens in connection with the solicitation, negotiation or sale of any stock, bond, mutual fund, annuity or other financial product.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to any person who has obtained a certificate, title or designation through completion of a course of study (I) resulting in the awarding of an academic degree that is from an accredited institution of higher education and is in a field related to the activity described in subsection (a) of this section, as determined by the Commissioner of Consumer Protection, provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner, or (2) provided by an organization accredited by the American National Standards Institute or the National Commission for Certifying Agencies, an organization recognized as an accrediting agency by the United States Department of Education pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 USC 1099b, as amended from time to time, or any other organization approved by the Commissioner of Consumer Protection, provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner.

(c) A violation of subsection (a) of this section shall be deemed an unfair or deceptive trade practice under subsection (a) of section 42-110b of the general statutes.

Sec. 502. Section 36b-4 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) No person shall, in connection with the offer, sale or purchase of any security, directly or indirectly: (1) Employ any device, scheme or artifice to defraud; (2) make any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or (3) engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

(b) No person shall, in connection with the offer, sale or purchase of any security, directly or indirectly engage in any dishonest or unethical practice.

(c) No person shall, in connection with the offer, sale or purchase of any security, directly or indirectly use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens, unless such person has obtained a certificate, title or designation through completion of a course of study (1) resulting in the awarding of an academic degree that is from an accredited institution of higher education and is in a field related to the activity described in this subsection, as determined by the commissioner, provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner, or (2) provided by an organization accredited by the American National Standards Institute or the National Commission for Certifying Agencies, an organization recognized as an accrediting agency by the United States Department of Education pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 USC 1099b, as amended from time to time, or any other organization approved by the commissioner provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner.

Sec. 503. Subsection (a) of section 36b-7 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) (1) A broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser agent may obtain an initial or renewal registration by filing with the commissioner or other depository as the commissioner may by regulation or order designate an application together with a consent to service of process pursuant to subsection (g) of section 36b-33.

(2) The application shall require that the broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser agent state whether such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens during the period for which registration is sought. If such broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser agent intends to use such certificate, professional designation or form of advertising, such person shall also state on the application what course of study such person has completed and whether such person has been awarded an academic degree described in subsection (c) of section 36b-4, as amended by this act, or a certificate from an organization listed in said subsection (c). The application shall also contain such other information as the commissioner may require.

Sec. 504. Section 36b-12 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) (1) Each person applying for registration as a broker-dealer or investment adviser shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner in writing to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars.

(2) Each person applying for such registration who states on such person's application submitted in accordance with subsection (a) of section 36b-7, as amended by this act, that such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner in writing to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, a nonrefundable fee of two hundred fifty dollars in addition to the fee required by subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(b) (1) Each person applying for registration as an agent or investment adviser agent shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars.

(2) Each person applying for registration as an agent or investment adviser agent who states on such person's application submitted in accordance with subsection (a) of section 36b-7, as amended by this act, that such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, an additional nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars in addition to the fee required by subdivision (1) of this subsection.
required by subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(c) Each registration issued pursuant to this section shall expire at the close of business on December thirty-first of the calendar year in which the registration became effective.

(d) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection, each person registered as an agent or investment adviser agent, requesting transfer of the registration of such agent or investment adviser agent to another registered broker-dealer or investment adviser, shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner in writing to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars for each transfer requested.

(2) Each broker-dealer or investment adviser receiving a mass transfer shall pay to the commissioner or to any person designated by the commissioner in writing to collect such fee on behalf of the commissioner, a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars for each agent or investment adviser agent whose registration is transferred. For purposes of this subsection, "mass transfer" means a transfer of multiple agents of a broker-dealer or investment adviser agents of an investment adviser from a transferring broker-dealer or investment adviser to a receiving broker-dealer or investment adviser due to a cessation of business activity, succession, acquisition, merger, consolidation or other reorganization affecting the transferring broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(e) Each person applying for registration under subsection (a) or (b) of this section and any registrant applying for renewal of such registration under section 36b-13, as amended by this act, shall pay the actual cost, as determined by the commissioner, of any reasonable investigation or examination made of such applicant or registrant by or on behalf of the commissioner.

Sec. 505. Section 36b-13 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):
(a) (1) Each person registered as a broker-dealer or investment adviser may renew such registration for a one-year period not later than December thirty-first of each calendar year by making application in such manner as prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall require the broker-dealer or investment adviser to state whether such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens during the period for which registration is sought.

(2) The fee for renewal of registration for each registered broker-dealer or investment adviser shall be one hundred fifty dollars per renewal application, nonrefundable, payable at the time of renewal, and shall be submitted, together with the renewal application, to the commissioner or any person designated in writing by the commissioner to collect such fee on his behalf.

(3) Any broker-dealer or investment adviser who states on the renewal application that such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens shall pay a nonrefundable fee of one hundred fifty dollars at the time of renewal in addition to the renewal fee required under subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(b) (1) Each person registered as an agent or investment adviser agent may renew such registration for a one-year period by December thirty-first of each calendar year by making application in such manner as prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall require the agent or investment adviser agent to state whether such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens during the period for which registration is sought.

(2) The fee for renewal of registration for each person registered as an agent or investment adviser agent shall be fifty dollars, nonrefundable, payable at the time of renewal, and shall be submitted, together with the renewal application, to the commissioner or any person designated in writing by the commissioner to collect such fee on his behalf.

(3) Any agent or investment adviser agent who states on the renewal application that such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens shall pay a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars at the time of renewal in addition to the renewal fee required under subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(c) Each registrant or person requesting renewal of a registration shall pay the actual cost, as determined by the commissioner, of any reasonable investigation or examination made of such person by or on behalf of the commissioner.

Sec. 506. Subsection (a) of section 36b-15 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) The commissioner may, by order, deny, suspend or revoke any registration or, by order, restrict or impose conditions on the securities or investment advisory activities that an applicant or registrant may perform in this state if the commissioner finds that (1) the order is in the public interest, and (2) the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director, any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or any person directly or indirectly controlling the broker-dealer or investment adviser: (A) Has filed an application for registration which as of its effective date, or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact; (B) has wilfully violated or wilfully failed to comply with any provision of sections 36b-2 to 36b-33, inclusive, as amended by this act, or a predecessor statute or any regulation or order under said sections or a predecessor statute; (C) has been convicted, within the past ten years, of any misdemeanor involving a security, any aspect of the securities business, or any felony, provided any denial, suspension or revocation of such registration shall be in accordance with the provisions of section 46a-80; (D) is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities or commodities business; (E) is the subject of a cease and desist order of the commissioner or an order of the commissioner denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser or investment adviser agent; (F) is the subject of any of the following sanctions that are currently effective or were imposed within the past ten years: (i) An order issued by the securities administrator of any other state, Canadian province or territory, or by the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission denying, suspending or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser agent or a person required to be registered under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 USC 1 et seq., as from time to time amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, or the substantial equivalent of those terms, as defined in sections 36b-2 to 36b-33, inclusive, as amended by this act, (ii) an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission or Commodity Futures Trading Commission suspending or expelling such applicant, registrant or person from a national securities or commodities exchange or national securities or commodities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 USC 1 et seq., as from time to time amended, or, in the case of an individual, an order of the Securities and Exchange Commission or an equivalent order of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission barring such individual from association with a broker-dealer or an investment adviser, (iii) a suspension, expulsion or other sanction issued by a national securities exchange or other self-regulatory organization registered under federal laws administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission or the Commodity Futures Trading Commission if the effect of the sanction has not been stayed or overturned by appeal or otherwise, (iv) a United States Post Office fraud order, or (v) a cease and desist order entered by the Securities and Exchange Commission, a self-regulatory organization or the securities agency or administrator of any other state or Canadian province or territory; but the commissioner may not (I) institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this subparagraph more than five years from the date of the sanction relied on, and (II) enter an order under this subparagraph on the basis of an order under any other state act unless that order was based on facts which would constitute a ground for an order under this section; (G) may be denied registration under federal law as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser agent or as a person required to be registered under the Commodity Exchange Act, 7 USC 1 et seq., as from time to time amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or the substantial equivalent of those terms as defined in sections 36b-2 to 36b-33, inclusive, as amended by this act; (H) has engaged in fraudulent, dishonest or unethical practices in the securities or commodities business, including abusive sales practices in the business dealings of such applicant, registrant or person with current or prospective customers or clients; (I) is insolvent, either in the sense that the liabilities of such applicant, registrant or person exceed the assets of such applicant, registrant or person, or in the sense that such applicant, registrant or person cannot meet the obligations of such applicant, registrant or person as they mature; but the commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this subparagraph without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser; (J) is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, and knowledge of the securities business, except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section; (K) has failed reasonably to supervise: (i) The agents or investment adviser agents of such applicant or registrant, if the applicant or registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser; or (ii) the agents of a broker-dealer or investment adviser agents of an investment adviser, if such applicant, registrant or other person is or was an agent, investment adviser agent or other person charged with exercising supervisory authority on behalf of a broker-dealer or investment adviser; (L) in connection with any investigation conducted pursuant to section 36b-26 or any examination under subsection (d) of section 36b-14, has made any material misrepresentation to the commissioner or upon request made by the commissioner, has withheld or concealed material information from, or refused to furnish material information to the commissioner, provided, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that any records, including, but not limited to, written, visual, audio, magnetic or electronic records, computer printouts and software, and any other documents, that are withheld or concealed from the commissioner in connection with any such investigation or examination are material, unless such presumption is rebutted by substantial evidence; (M) has wilfully aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced or procured a violation of any provision of sections 36b-2 to 36b-33, inclusive, as amended by this act, or a predecessor statute or any regulation or order under such sections or a predecessor statute; [or] (N) has failed to pay the proper filing fee; but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this subparagraph, and the commissioner shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected. The commissioner may not institute a suspension or revocation proceeding on the basis of a fact or transaction known to the commissioner when the registration became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of such registration; or (O) has used a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens without completing a course of study as prescribed in subsection (c) of section 36b-4, as amended by this act.

Sec. 507. Section 38a-702b of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) A person shall not sell, solicit or negotiate insurance in this state for any class or classes of insurance unless the person is licensed for that line of authority in accordance with sections 38a-702a to 38a-702r, inclusive, as amended by this act.

(b) No person shall, in connection with the sale, solicitation or negotiation of any class or classes of insurance in this state, use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens, unless such person has obtained a certificate, title or designation through completion of a course of study (1) resulting in the awarding of an academic degree that is from an accredited institution of higher education and is in a field related to the activity described in this subsection, as determined by the commissioner, provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner, or (2) provided by an organization accredited by the American National Standards Institute or the National Commission for Certifying Agencies, an organization recognized as an accrediting agency by the United States Department of Education pursuant to the Higher Education Act of 1965, 20 USC 1099b, as amended from time to time, or any other organization approved by the commissioner provided the certificate, title or designation is not used in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner.

Sec. 508. Subsection (a) of section 38a-702e of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) A person applying for a resident insurance producer license shall make application to the commissioner on the uniform application and declare under penalty of refusal, suspension or revocation of the license that the statements made in the application are true, correct and complete to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief. The application shall require that the individual state whether such individual will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such individual has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens during the period for which licensure is sought. If such individual intends to use such certificate, professional designation or form of advertising, such individual (1) shall also state on the application what course of study such individual has completed and whether such individual has been awarded an academic degree as described in subsection (b) of section 38a-702b, as amended by this act, or a certificate from an organization listed in said subsection (b), and (2) shall pay the fee set forth in section 38a-11, as amended by this act.

The commissioner shall not approve the application unless the commissioner finds that the individual [(1)] (A) is at least eighteen years of age; [(2)] (B) has not committed any act that is a ground for denial, suspension or revocation set forth in section 38a-702k, as amended by this act; [(3)] (C) has completed, where required by the commissioner, a prelicensing course of study for the lines of authority for which the person has applied; [(4)] (D) has paid the fees set forth in section 38a-11, as amended by this act; and [(5)] (E) has successfully passed the examinations for the lines of authority for which the person has applied.

Sec. 509. Subsection (a) of section 38a-702g of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) Unless a person is denied a license pursuant to section 38a-702k, as amended by this act, a nonresident person shall receive a nonresident producer license subject to the provisions of this subsection if: (1) The person is currently licensed as a resident and in good standing in the person's home state; (2) the person [has submitted] submits the proper request for licensure and [has paid] pays the fees required under section 38a-11, as amended by this act; (3) the person [has submitted] submits or [transmitted] transmits to the commissioner the application for licensure that the person submitted to the person's home state, or in lieu of the same, a completed uniform application, provided an applicant for a surplus lines broker license or limited lines credit insurance producer license may submit any other application acceptable to the commissioner; and (4) the person's home state awards nonresident producer licenses to residents of this state on the same basis. In addition to the requirements of subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, of this subsection, if such person will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising expressing or implying that such person has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens, the person (A) shall submit a written statement to the commissioner that such person will use such certificate, professional designation or form of advertising and that such person has completed a course of study pursuant to subsection (b) of section 38a-702b, as amended by this act, and (B) shall pay the fee required under subparagraph (E) of subdivision (12) of subsection (a) of section 38a-11, as amended by this act.

Sec. 510. Subsection (a) of section 38a-702k of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) The commissioner may place on probation, suspend, revoke or refuse to issue or renew an insurance producer's license or may levy a civil penalty in accordance with the provisions of this title, or may take any combination of such actions, for any one or more of the following causes: (1) Providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete or materially untrue information in the license application; (2) violating any insurance laws, or violating any regulation, subpoena or order of the commissioner or of another state's commissioner; (3) obtaining or attempting to obtain a license through misrepresentation or fraud; (4) improperly withholding, misappropriating or converting any moneys or properties received in the course of doing an insurance business; (5) intentionally misrepresenting the terms of an actual or proposed insurance contract or application for insurance; (6) having been convicted of a felony; (7) having admitted or been found to have committed any insurance unfair trade practice or fraud; (8) using fraudulent, coercive or dishonest practices, or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness or financial irresponsibility in the conduct of business in this state or elsewhere; (9) having an insurance producer license, or its equivalent, denied, suspended or revoked in any other state, province, district or territory; (10) forging another's name to an application for insurance or to any document related to an insurance transaction; (11) improperly using notes or any other reference material to complete an examination for an insurance license; (12) knowingly accepting insurance business from an individual who is not licensed; (13) failing to comply with an administrative or court order imposing a child support obligation; [or] (14) failing to pay state income tax or comply with any administrative or court order directing payment of state income tax; or (15) using a certificate, title or designation or form of advertising expressing or implying in an untrue, deceptive, misleading or false manner that the insurance producer has special training, education or experience in advising or servicing senior citizens without completing a course of study pursuant to subsection (b) of section 38a-702b, as amended by this act.

Sec. 511. Subsection (a) of section 38a-11 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2009):

(a) The commissioner shall demand and receive the following fees:
(1) For the annual fee for each license issued to a domestic insurance company, one hundred dollars; (2) for receiving and filing annual reports of domestic insurance companies, twenty-five dollars; (3) for filing all documents prerequisite to the issuance of a license to an insurance company, one hundred seventy-five dollars, except that the fee for such filings by any health care center, as defined in section 38a-175, shall be one thousand one hundred dollars; (4) for filing any additional paper required by law, fifteen dollars; (5) for each certificate of valuation, organization, reciprocity or compliance, twenty dollars; (6) for each certified copy of a license to a company, twenty dollars; (7) for each certified copy of a report or certificate of condition of a company to be filed in any other state, twenty dollars; (8) for amending a certificate of authority, one hundred dollars; (9) for each license issued to a rating organization, one hundred dollars. In addition, insurance companies shall pay any fees imposed under section 12-211; (10) a filing fee of twenty-five dollars for each initial application for a license made pursuant to section 38a-769; (11) with respect to insurance agents' appointments: (A) A filing fee of twenty-five dollars for each request for any agent appointment, except that no filing fee shall be payable for a request for agent appointment by an insurance company domiciled in a state or foreign country which does not require any filing fee for a request for agent appointment by an Connecticut insurance company; (B) a fee of forty dollars for each appointment issued to an agent of a domestic insurance company or for each appointment continued; and (C) a fee of twenty dollars for each appointment issued to an agent of any other insurance company or for each appointment continued, except that no fee shall be payable for an appointment issued to an agent of an insurance company domiciled in a state or foreign country which does not require any fee for an appointment issued to an agent of a Connecticut insurance company; (12) with respect to insurance producers: (A) An examination fee of seven dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of seven dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; (B) a fee of forty dollars for each license issued; (C) a fee of forty dollars per year, or any portion thereof, for each license renewed; [and] (D) a fee of forty dollars for any license renewed under the transitional process established in section 38a-784; and (E) a fee of forty dollars for each license issued and for each license renewed for an insurance producer who will use a certificate, professional designation or form of advertising as described in subsection (a) of section 38a-702e, as amended by this act, and in subsection (a) of section 38a-702g, as amended by this act, in addition to any fees required under subparagraphs (A) to (D), inclusive, of this subdivision; (13) with respect to public adjusters: (A) An examination fee of seven dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of seven dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; and (B) a fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars for each license issued or renewed; (14) with respect to casualty adjusters: (A) An examination fee of ten dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of ten dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; (B) a fee of forty dollars for each license issued or renewed; and (C) the expense of any examination administered outside the state shall be the responsibility of the entity making the request and such entity shall pay to the commissioner one hundred dollars for such examination and the actual traveling expenses of the examination administrator to administer such examination; (15) with respect to motor vehicle physical damage appraisers: (A) An examination fee of forty dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of forty dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; (B) a fee of forty dollars for each license issued or renewed; and (C) the expense of any examination administered outside the state shall be the responsibility of the entity making the request and such entity shall pay to the commissioner one hundred dollars for such examination and the actual traveling expenses of the examination administrator to administer such examination; (16) with respect to certified insurance consultants: (A) An examination fee of thirteen dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of thirteen dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; (B) a fee of two hundred dollars for each license issued; and (C) a fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars for each license renewed; (17) with respect to surplus lines brokers: (A) An examination fee of ten dollars for each examination taken, except when a testing service is used, the testing service shall pay a fee of ten dollars to the commissioner for each examination taken by an applicant; and (B) a fee of five hundred dollars for each license issued or renewed; (18) with respect to fraternal agents, a fee of forty dollars for each license issued or renewed; (19) a fee of thirteen dollars for each license certificate requested, whether or not a license has been issued; (20) with respect to domestic and foreign benefit societies shall pay: (A) For service of process, twenty-five dollars for each person or insurer to be served; (B) for filing a certified copy of its charter or articles of association, five dollars; (C) for filing the annual report, ten
