Explanation

The bill approves state grant commitments for school construction projects on the education commissioner's project priority list. This authorizes $416.6 million in state grant commitments for 29 new school construction projects of various types. It also reauthorizes a total of 4 previously authorized projects. These projects have changed substantially (more than 10%) in cost or scope. The reauthorizations increase state grant commitments by a net $8.09 million from the amounts previously authorized for these projects. The total cost of the state's share of the priority list is anticipated to be approximately $647.7 million; this includes $424.69 million in principal payments, and $223.0 million in interest payments. The state cost of $424.69 million represents a revenue gain to various municipalities whose projects are included on the priority list.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to the bond payment schedule.

BACKGROUND

School Construction Grants

The state reimburses school districts for between 20% and 80% of the eligible costs of local school construction projects. The reimbursement rate depends mostly on town wealth but districts may receive a higher reimbursement for certain types of projects, such as those involving space for school-readiness programs or full-day kindergarten. In addition, certain types of interdistrict projects (vocational agricultural centers, regional special education facilities, and interdistrict magnet schools) are reimbursed at the rate of 95% of eligible costs. Districts also receive a 10-percentage-point bonus for projects undertaken in cooperation with one or more other districts. Board of education central administration facility projects are reimbursed at half the district's otherwise applicable rate.

Grants are payable from state general obligation bond funds.
