General Assembly

Raised Bill No. 5407

February Session, 2010

LCO No. 1774

Referred to Committee on Judiciary

Introduced by:

(JUD)

AN ACT CONCERNING PROBATE FEES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. Section 45a-107 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2010):

(a) The basic costs for all proceedings in the settlement of the estate of any deceased person, including succession and estate tax proceedings, shall be in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) For estates in which proceedings were commenced on or after July 1, 2010, costs shall be computed as follows:

(1) The basis for costs shall be (A) the greatest of (i) the gross estate for succession tax purposes, as provided in section 12-349, (ii) the inventory, including all supplements thereto, (iii) the Connecticut taxable estate, as defined in section 12-391, or (iv) the gross estate for estate tax purposes, as provided in chapters 217 and 218, except as provided in subdivisions (4) and (5) of this subsection, plus (B) all damages recovered for injuries resulting in death, minus any hospital and medical expenses for treatment of such injuries resulting in death, minus any hospital and medical expenses for treatment of such injuries that are not reimbursable by medical insurance, and minus the attorney's fees and other costs and expenses of recovering such damages. Any portion of the basis for costs that is determined by property passing to the surviving spouse shall be reduced by fifty per cent. Except as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, in no case shall the minimum cost be less than twenty-five dollars.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, costs shall be assessed in accordance with the following table:

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, if the basis for costs is less than ten thousand dollars and a full estate is opened, the minimum cost shall be one hundred fifty dollars.

(4) In the case of a deceased person who was domiciled in this state on the date of his or her death, the gross estate for estate tax purposes shall, for the purpose of determining the basis for costs pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, be reduced by the fair market value of any real property or tangible personal property of the deceased person situated outside of this state.

(5) In the case of a deceased person who was not domiciled in this state on the date of his or her death but who owned real property or tangible personal property situated in this state on the date of his or her death, only the fair market value of such real property or tangible personal property situated in this state shall be included in the basis for costs pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(b) For estates in which proceedings were commenced on or after April 1, 1998, and prior to July 1, 2010, costs shall be computed as follows:

(1) The basis for costs shall be (A) the gross estate for succession tax purposes, as provided in section 12-349, the inventory, including all supplements thereto, the Connecticut taxable estate, as defined in section 12-391, or the gross estate for estate tax purposes, as provided in chapters 217 and 218, whichever is greater, plus (B) all damages recovered for injuries resulting in death, minus any hospital and medical expenses for treatment of such injuries resulting in death, minus any hospital and medical expenses for treatment of such injuries that are not reimbursable by medical insurance and minus the attorney's fees and other costs and expenses of recovering such damages. Any portion of the basis for costs that is determined by property passing to the surviving spouse shall be reduced by fifty percent. Except as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, in no case shall the minimum cost be less than twenty-five dollars.

(2) Except as provided in subdivisions (3) and (4) of this subsection, costs shall be assessed in accordance with the following table:

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection, if the basis for costs is less than ten thousand dollars and a full estate is opened, the minimum cost shall be one hundred fifty dollars.

(4) In estates where the gross taxable estate is less than six hundred thousand dollars, in which no succession tax return is required to be filed, a probate fee of .1 per cent shall be charged against non-solely-owned real estate, in addition to any other fees computed under this section.

[(c)] (d) For estates in which proceedings were commenced on or after July 1, 1993, and prior to April 1, 1998, costs shall be computed as follows:

(1) The basis for costs shall be: (A) The gross estate for succession tax purposes, as provided in section 12-349, or the inventory, including all supplements thereto, whichever is greater, plus (B) all damages recovered for injuries resulting in death minus any hospital and medical expenses for treatment of such injuries that are not reimbursable by medical insurance and minus the attorney’s fees and other costs and expenses of recovering such damages. Any portion of the basis for costs that is determined by property passing to the surviving spouse shall be reduced by fifty per cent. Except as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, in no case shall the minimum cost be less than ten dollars.

[(e)] (f) For estates in which proceedings were commenced prior to July 1, 1983, costs shall be computed as follows:

- T50: With respect to any estate in which any proceedings were commenced or succession tax documents filed:
- T51: Prior to January 1, 1968: Section 45-17 of the 1961 supplement to the general statutes.
- T52: Prior to July 1, 1969, but on or after January 1, 1968: Section 45-17a of the 1967 supplement to the general statutes.
- T53: Prior to July 1, 1978, but on or after July 1, 1969: Section 45-17a of the 1969 supplement to the general statutes.
- T54: Prior to July 1, 1983, but on or after July 1, 1978: Section 45-17a of the general statutes, revised to January 1, 1983.
[(f)] (g) If more than one hearing is held in any matter under this section, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars shall be payable to the court by the estate, or, in the discretion of the court, by any interested party against whom the court shall assess such additional charge.

[(g)] (h) If the total time of any one hearing in the matter exceeds one hour, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars per hour for each hour in excess of the first hour shall be payable to the court by the estate, or at the discretion of the court by any interested party against whom the court shall assess the additional charge, provided the additional charge shall not exceed three hundred dollars.

[(h)] (i) A charge of fifty dollars shall be payable to the court by any creditor applying to the Court of Probate pursuant to section 45a-364 or 45a-401 for consideration of a claim. If such claim is allowed by the court, the court may order the fiduciary to reimburse the charge from the estate.

[(i)] A charge of fifty dollars for an appeal shall be payable to the court by the appellant.

(j) A charge of fifty dollars plus the actual costs of rescheduling the adjourned hearing shall be payable to the court by any party who requests an adjournment of a scheduled hearing or whose failure to appear necessitates an adjournment, provided the court may waive the charge and costs for cause shown.

(k) In no event shall any fee exceed ten thousand dollars for any estate in which proceedings were commenced prior to April 1, 1998, and twelve thousand five hundred dollars for any estate in which proceedings were commenced on or after April 1, 1998.

(l) In the case of decedents who die on or after January 1, 2011:

(1) Any costs assessed under this section that are not paid within thirty days of the date of the invoice from the court of probate shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month or portion thereof until paid;

(2) If a tax return or a copy of a tax return required under subparagraph (B) of subdivision (3) of subsection (b) of section 12-392 is not filed with a court of probate by the due date for such return or copy under subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of section 12-392, the costs that would have been due under this section if the return had been filed shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month or portion thereof from the date that is thirty days after such due date until paid; and

(3) A court of probate may, for reasonable cause shown, extend the time for payment of any costs, including interest, under this section. No additional interest shall accrue during the period of such extension. A court of probate may not waive interest outside of any extension period.

Sec. 2. Section 45a-110 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

(a) The costs, fees, charges and expenses provided for in connection with proceedings under section 45a-107, as amended by this act, with respect to a decedent's estate shall be paid for by the executor or administrator, or if there is no such fiduciary, by the transferee filing the succession tax return under section 12-359 or a tax return under section 12-392.

(b) The costs, fees, charges and expenses provided for in connection with proceedings under section 45a-108, as amended by this act, with respect to an accounting shall be paid by the trustee, guardian, conservator or other fiduciary.

(c) In the case of any proceeding under sections 45a-106 to 45a-112, inclusive, as amended by this act, commenced on motion of the court such costs, fees, charges and expenses shall be paid by the party against whom such costs are assessed by the court.

(d) In all other cases, the petitioner shall pay the costs, fees, charges and expenses provided for by sections 45a-106 to 45a-112, inclusive, as amended by this act, unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 3. (NEW) (Effective January 1, 2011) Whenever a court determines that a refund is due an applicant, petitioner, moving party or other person for any costs, fees, charges or expenses incurred under the provisions of sections 45a-106 to 45a-112, inclusive, of the general statutes, as amended by this act, the Probate Court Administrator shall, upon receipt of certification of such overpayment by the court of probate that issued the invoice for such costs, fees, charges or expenses, cause a refund of such overpayment to be issued from the Probate Court Administration Fund.

Sec. 4. (NEW) (Effective January 1, 2011) A person may pay any costs, fees, charges or expenses incurred under the provisions of sections 45a-106 to 45a-112, inclusive, of the general statutes, as amended by this act, by means of a credit card, and such person may be charged a service fee for any payment made by credit card. The service fee shall be determined by the Probate Court Administrator and shall not exceed any charge by the credit card issuer, including any discount rate. Payments by credit card shall be made at such time and under such conditions as the Probate Court Administrator may prescribe.

Sec. 5. Section 45a-106 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

The basic costs payable to courts of probate for any proceeding other than in connection with the settlement of the estate of a deceased person or periodic accounts of trustees, guardians, conservators or other fiduciaries shall be as follows:

(1) Except for such proceedings for which basic costs are specified in subdivision (7) or (8) of this section or are otherwise specified or exempted in section 45a-111 or elsewhere in the general statutes, there shall be payable to the Court of Probate with respect to each application, petition or motion filed with the court to commence a matter before it, an entry fee of one hundred fifty dollars which shall be paid by the person making the application, petition or motion.

(2) On each matter commenced by the court on its own motion, an entry fee of one hundred fifty dollars shall be payable by an interested party as determined by the court.

(3) If more than one hearing is held in any matter so entered, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars shall be payable to the court by the party paying the entry fee in the matter, or, in the discretion of the court, by any interested party against whom the court shall assess such additional charge.

(4) If the total time of any one hearing in the matter exceeds one hour, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars per hour for each hour in excess of the first hour shall be payable to the court by the party paying the entry fee in the matter, or, in the discretion of the court, by any interested party against whom the court shall assess the additional charge, provided the additional charge shall not exceed three hundred dollars.

(5) For purposes of establishing charges payable to courts of probate hereunder, all applications, petitions and motions filed and proceedings thereunder, in connection with a matter which has been entered as above, which are necessary to enter a final decree in and are incidental to the action of the court being sought in the matter so entered shall be covered by the entry fee and by any additional charge under subdivisions (3) and (4) of this section that may have become payable in such matter. No additional charges under this section shall be made for any such incidental applications, petitions or motions, provided once a final decree is entered in any matter and, thereafter, additional action or actions are sought in the court in connection therewith, such additional action or actions shall be treated as a new matter hereunder.

[(6) For the purpose of sections 45a-106 to 45a-112, inclusive, there shall be a charge of fifty dollars for an appeal which shall be payable to the court by the appellant.]

[(7)] (6) For proceedings brought under section 46b-30, the cost shall be twenty-five dollars.

[(8)] (7) For filing a will in the Probate Court, the cost shall be five dollars. For filing any other document in the probate court under the provisions of any statute if the court is not required to take any action, the cost shall be twenty-five dollars, in addition to any applicable recording charge. The cost shall be payable by the person filing such document.

[(9)] (8) A charge of fifty dollars plus the actual costs of rescheduling the adjourned hearing shall be payable to the court by any party who requests an adjournment of a scheduled hearing or whose failure to appear necessitates an adjournment, provided the court, for cause shown, may waive either the charge or the costs, or both.

Sec. 6. Section 45a-108 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

(a) (1) Except with respect to a decedent's estate, the basic costs for all proceedings in connection with allowance and settlement of a periodic or other account, after notice and hearing, regardless of the date of origin of the estate in which such account is filed, shall be in accordance with the following schedule:

<table>

<td>$750.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(2) If more than one account is the subject of a hearing, the charges shall be based on the values in the most recent account being heard.

(b) If more than one hearing is held in any matter under this section, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars shall be payable to the court by the moving party, or, in the discretion of the court, by any interested party against whom the court shall assess such additional charge.

(c) If the total time of any one hearing in the matter exceeds one hour, an additional charge of twenty-five dollars per hour for each hour in excess of the first hour shall be payable to the court by the moving party, or in the discretion of the court, by any interested party against whom the court shall assess the additional charge, provided the additional charge shall not exceed three hundred dollars.

[(d) A charge of fifty dollars for an appeal shall be payable to the court by the appellant.]

[(e)] (d) A charge of fifty dollars plus the actual costs of rescheduling the adjourned hearing shall be payable to the court by any party who requests an adjournment of a scheduled hearing or whose failure to appear necessitates an adjournment, provided the court may waive the charge and costs for cause shown.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
