1895 (E) Where the loan is not a CHFA loan; and

1896 (F) In which the conditions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of this 1897 subparagraph apply, subject to any adjustments made pursuant to 1898 clause (iii) of this subparagraph:

1899 (i) The difference, at the time of consummation, between the APR 1900 for the loan and the conventional mortgage rate is either equal to or 1901 greater than (I) one and three-quarters percentage points, if the loan is 1902 a first mortgage loan, or (II) three and three-quarters percentage 1903 points, if the loan is a secondary mortgage loan. For purposes of such

1904 calculation, "conventional mortgage rate" means the contract interest
1905 rate on commitments for fixed-rate mortgages published by the Board
1906 of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in its statistical release
1907 H.15, or any publication that may supersede it, during the week
1908 preceding the week in which the interest rate for the loan is set.

1909 (ii) The difference, at the time of consummation, between the APR
1910 for the loan or extension of credit and the average prime offer rate for a 1911 comparable transaction, as of the date the interest rate is set, is greater 1912 than one and one-half percentage points if the loan is a first mortgage 1913 loan or three and one-half percentage points if the loan is a secondary 1914 mortgage loan. For purposes of this subparagraph, "average prime 1920 and any increases or decreases made under this clause, shall expire on 1921 August 31, 2010. For purposes of this clause, the relevant factors to be 1922 considered by the commissioner shall include, but not be limited to, 1923 the existence and amount of increases in fees or charges in connection

1924 with purchases of mortgages by the Federal National Mortgage 1925 Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation and

1927 impact, including the magnitude of the impact, that such increases
1928 have had, or will likely have, on APRs for mortgage loans in this state.
1929 When considering such factors, the commissioner shall focus on those 1930 increases that are related to the deterioration in the housing market
1931 and credit conditions. The commissioner may refrain from increasing 1932 such percentages if it appears that lenders are increasing interest rates
1933 or fees in bad faith or if increasing the percentages would be contrary 1934 to the purposes of sections 36a-760 to 36a-760f, inclusive. No increase 1935 authorized by the commissioner to a particular percentage shall exceed 1936 one-quarter of one percentage point, and the total of all increases to a

1937 particular percentage under this clause shall not exceed one-half of one 1938 percentage point. No increase shall be made unless: (I) The increase is 1939 noticed in the Banking Department Bulletin and the Connecticut Law 1940 Journal, and (II) a public comment period of twenty days is provided.
1941 Any increase made under this clause shall be reduced proportionately 1942 when the need for the increase has diminished or no longer exists. The 1943 commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, may authorize an 1944 increase in the percentages with respect to all loans or just with respect 1945 to a certain class or classes of loans;
