

I have had Lupus since I was 42 years of age. Was almost bed ridden for the first 10 years and have been hospitalized on and off since. I am now 74 1/2 yrs old but still have many complications. Any bill that's passed will help people with this crippling and often deadly disease.