"AN ACT IMPLEMENTING THE PROVISIONS OF THE BUDGET CONCERNING THE JUDICIAL BRANCH, CHILD PROTECTION, CRIMINAL JUSTICE, WEIGH STATIONS AND CERTAIN STATE AGENCY CONSOLIDATIONS."

1 Strike section 168 in its entirety and substitute the following in lieu 2 thereof:

3 "Sec. 168. Section 29-5 of the general statutes is repealed and the 4 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2011):

5 The Commissioner of [Public Safety] Emergency Services and Public
6 Protection may, within available appropriations, appoint suitable 7 persons from the regular state police force as resident state policemen 8 in addition to the regular state police force to be employed and 9 empowered as state policemen in any town or two or more adjoining 10 towns lacking an organized police force, and such officers may be 11 detailed by said commissioner as resident state policemen for regular 12 assignment to such towns, provided each town shall pay sixty per cent 13 of the cost of compensation, maintenance and other expenses of the 14 state policemen detailed to such town, and on and after July 1, 1992, 15 each town shall pay seventy per cent of such cost and other expenses.

16 Such town or towns and the Commissioner of [Public Safety]
17 Emergency Services and Public Protection are authorized to enter into 18 agreements and contracts for such police services, with the approval of 19 the Attorney General, for periods not exceeding two years. The 20 Commissioner of [Public Safety] Emergency Services and Public 21 Protection shall exercise such supervision and direction over any 22 resident policeman so appointed as [he] such commissioner deems 23 necessary, and each appointee shall be required to conform to the 24 requirements of chapter 67. Each resident state policeman shall have 25 the same powers as officers of the regular state police force and be 26 entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and 27 regulations as the Division of State Police within the Department of 28 [Public Safety] Emergency Services and Public Protection."
