HB 6346

AN ACT CONCERNING RESIDENTIAL STAYS AT CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES.

SUMMARY:

This bill extends to more inmates the opportunity to remain at a correctional institution beyond a maximum sentence term. It allows inmates to ask to remain in a correctional facility for up to 90 days after their discharge date (1) if the treatment program or health care institution to which they are to be discharged is unable to accept them on the discharge date or (2) for any compelling reason consistent with their rehabilitation or treatment. Under current law, only inmates participating in a state program or a department drug, work, or education release program may request an extended stay.

As under current law, inmates seeking an extended stay must make the request in writing at least one week before their scheduled release. By law, the correction commissioner may charge inmates granted permission to stay a reasonable daily fee.
