

I am in full support of the bills. Whether it be public land or private land the grantor of recreational privlidges should not be laible for injuries obtained while using the facilities: all there is always a certain amount of risk involved when hiking, biking of anything els

Regards,

Jim Dionne