

To Governor Malloy and all Members of the Appropriations Committee:

I am a retired Connecticut teacher who is quite upset with what I have read concerning Governor Malloy's desire to have the state comptroller's office take over the STRB.

I have but one thought to relay to the State of Connecticut government officials, including Gov. Malloy, and that is, "KEEP YOUR HANDS OFF THE CONNECTICUT STRB!!!"

I dedicated 35 years of my life to the children of Connecticut. In gratitude, the State of Connecticut already caused me to lose 40-50% of the Social Security benefits I rightfully earned. They also made it impossible for me to collect any of my husband's Social Security benefits.

Now that you have succeeded in depriving me of what all other U.S. citizens are entitled to- you want to take control of my teacher's retirement board???

As I stated in the opening line of my letter....KEEP YOUR HANDS OFF MY TEACHER'S RETIREMENT BOARD!!!
