

there should be no support for SB24 AAC educational competitiveness bill. this is not educational reform. on the contrary it is educational suicide. we are out of control and playing the blame game. get to the root of the problem, poverty and segregation. i will support no one come november who votes for this atrocity.... joe koniushesky