

I am writing to support the labeling of food containing genetically engineered ingredients as it is our right to know what is in our food supply. Even though I am not a proponent of GMO I would encourage and demand that the best GMO farming practices are adhered to. It is imperative that we know what is in our food supply and what we are feeding our children and our families.

Thank you.

Anne Gallagher

POB 107

Washington Depot, Ct. 06794