

this is to acknowledge that i support act h.b. no. 5122 which regulates the growth and sale of golden bamboo. the damage it has done here in connecticut is indescribable and people are unable to sell their homes as its invasiveness goes from property to property and once it reaches your property, it is near impossible to curb it. -elizabeth zlamany