

As a father and a Connecticut resident I strongly support the labeling of genetically modified food. I think this is a simple yet powerful step that our state can take to ensure the safety of its residents, especially its children.

-Colin Bennett
487 East Pond Meadow
Westbrook, Connecticut 06498