

I do not feel the fines are high enough or the season restrictions long enough. I feel too much is being given to the people that own wood furnaces and not enough to the neighbors of wood furnace owners, that are losing the right to use their own property. These people also paid for and thought they could use there property to.

Ray Evans