AN ACT CONCERNING THE REMOVAL OF THE POSSESSIONS OF DECEASED TENANTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Subsection (d) of section 47a-11d of the general statutes is 2 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective
3 October 1, 2012):

4 (d) On or after the date thirty days after the date [of the filing of] on 5 which the landlord files the affidavit pursuant to subsection (b) of this 6 section, the landlord shall inventory any possessions and personal 7 effects of the deceased occupant in the premises and shall file a copy of 8 such inventory with the court of probate, [under subsection (b) of this 9 section.] The landlord may not remove [them] such possessions and 10 personal effects until fifteen days after the date on which such 11 inventory is taken. Thereafter, the landlord may remove and store such 12 possessions and personal effects for an additional fifteen days. The 13 next of kin may reclaim such possessions and personal effects from the 14 landlord within such sixty-day period. If the next of kin does not 15 reclaim such possessions and personal effects by the end of such sixty-16 day period, the landlord may dispose of them [in accordance with

17 section 47a-42] by sale, auction or any other manner. The landlord
18 shall be entitled to retain any proceeds from such sale or auction.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
