AN ACT CONCERNING REVISIONS TO THE BANKING STATUTES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. Subsection (e) of section 36a-489 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(e) The commissioner may deem an application for a license under this section abandoned if the applicant fails to respond to any request for information required under sections 36a-485 to 36a-498f, inclusive, as amended by this act, 36a-534a and 36a-534b, as amended by this act, or the regulations adopted pursuant to said sections. The commissioner shall notify the applicant [in writing] on the system that if such information is not submitted not later than sixty days from the date of such request the application shall be deemed abandoned. An application filing fee paid prior to the date an application is deemed abandoned pursuant to this subsection shall not be refunded. Abandonment of an application pursuant to this subsection shall not preclude the applicant from submitting a new application for a license under said sections 36a-485 to 36a-498f, inclusive, as amended by this act, 36a-534a and 36a-534b, as amended by this act.

Sec. 2. Subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of section 36a-534b of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):
(a) (1) In addition to any other duties imposed upon the commissioner by law, the commissioner shall require mortgage lenders, mortgage correspondent lenders, mortgage brokers, mortgage loan originators and loan processors or underwriters to be licensed and registered through the system. In order to carry out this requirement, the commissioner shall participate in the system and permit the system to process applications for mortgage lender, mortgage correspondent lender, mortgage broker, mortgage loan originator and loan processor or underwriter licenses in this state and receive and maintain records related to such licenses that are allowed or required to be maintained by the commissioner. For this purpose, the commissioner may establish requirements as necessary for participation in the system, including: (A) Background checks for criminal history through (i) fingerprint or other databases, (ii) civil or administrative records, or (iii) credit history or any other information as deemed necessary by the system; (B) the payment of fees to apply for or renew licenses through the system; (C) the setting or resetting of renewal or reporting dates; and (D) the requirements for amending or surrendering a license or any other such activities as the commissioner deems necessary for participation in the system. For the purpose of participating in the system, the commissioner may waive or modify, in whole or in part, by regulation or order, any requirement of this section and sections 36a-485 to 36a-498f, inclusive, as amended by this act, and 36a-534a and [36a-534b and to] establish new requirements as reasonably necessary to participate in the system. For the purposes of implementing an orderly and efficient licensing process, the commissioner may adopt licensing regulations, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54, and interim procedures for licensing and acceptance of applications. For previously licensed individuals, the commissioner may establish expedited review and licensing procedures.

Sec. 3. Subsection (c) of section 36a-628 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):
(c) In connection with an application for such license and at any other time, the commissioner may, in accordance with section 29-17a, arrange for a criminal history records check requiring the fingerprinting of each principal, executive officer and director of the business and [individual industrial] development corporation or for conducting any other method of positive identification of such individuals required by the State Police Bureau of Identification.

Sec. 4. Section 36a-17 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(a) The commissioner, in the commissioner's discretion, may, subject to the provisions of section 36a-21 and the Freedom of Information Act, as defined in section 1-200; (1) make such public or private investigations or examinations within or outside this state, concerning any person subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner, as the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the duties of the commissioner, (2) require or permit any person to testify, produce a record or file a statement in writing, under oath, or otherwise as the commissioner determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated or about which an action or proceeding is pending, and (3) publish information concerning any violation of any provision of the general statutes within the jurisdiction of the commissioner or any regulation or order adopted or issued under such provision.

(b) Any Connecticut bank, Connecticut credit union or Connecticut credit union service organization which causes or has caused any electronic data processing services to be performed for such bank, credit union or credit union service organization either on or off its premises by an electronic data processing servicer shall enter into a written contract with such servicer. Such contract shall specify the duties and responsibilities of the bank, credit union or credit union service organization and such servicer and provide that such servicer shall allow the commissioner to examine such servicer's books, records and computer systems in accordance with this subsection, if required by the commissioner. The Connecticut bank, Connecticut credit union or Connecticut credit union service organization shall promptly notify the commissioner of any material change in its electronic data processing services. The commissioner may examine the books, records and computer systems of any electronic data processing servicer that performs electronic data processing services for a Connecticut bank, Connecticut credit union or Connecticut credit union service organization, if such services substantially impact the operations of the Connecticut bank, Connecticut credit union or Connecticut credit union service organization as determined by the commissioner, in order to (1) determine whether such servicer has the capacity to protect the customer information of such bank, credit union or credit union service organization, and (2) assess such servicer's potential for continued service. The commissioner may assess a fee of one hundred fifty dollars per day plus costs for each examiner who conducts such examination, the total cost of which the commissioner may allocate on a pro rata basis to all Connecticut banks, Connecticut credit unions and Connecticut credit union service organizations under contract with such servicer.

(c) For the purpose of any investigation, examination or proceeding under this title the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel attendance of witnesses, take evidence, require written statements and require the production of any records which the commissioner deems relevant or material. The commissioner may require that certified copies of any such records be provided to the commissioner at the commissioner's office. The commissioner may issue subpoenas in this state at the request of another state, provided (1) the activities concerning which the information is sought would constitute a basis for an investigation, examination or proceeding under this title had such activities occurred in this state, and (2) such other state has reciprocal legal authority to issue subpoenas in such state on behalf of the commissioner.

(d) Any person who is the subject of any such investigation, examination or proceeding shall make its records available to the commissioner in readable form; provide personnel and equipment necessary, including, but not limited to, assistance in the analysis of computer-generated records; provide copies or computer printouts of records when so requested; furnish unrestricted access to all areas of its principal place of business or wherever records may be located; and otherwise cooperate with the commissioner.

(e) The superior court for the judicial district of Hartford, upon application of the commissioner, may issue to any person refusing to obey a subpoena issued pursuant to subsection (c) of this section an order requiring that person to appear before the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner to produce records so ordered or to give evidence concerning the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(f) As used in this section, "records" includes, but is not limited to, books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, diaries, logs, notes, ledgers, journals, visual, audio, magnetic or electronic recordings, computer printouts and software, and any other documents.

Sec. 5. Section 36a-50 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(a) (1) Whenever the commissioner finds as the result of an investigation that any person has violated any provision of the general statutes within the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or any regulation, rule or order adopted or issued thereunder, the commissioner may send a notice to such person by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by any express delivery carrier that provides a dated delivery receipt. The notice shall be deemed received by the person on the earlier of the date of actual receipt or seven days after mailing or sending. Any such notice shall include: (A) A statement of the time, place, and nature of the hearing; (B) a statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held; (C) a reference to the particular sections of the general statutes, regulations, rules or orders alleged to have been violated; (D) a short and plain statement of the matters asserted; (E) the maximum penalty that may be imposed for such violation; and (F) a statement indicating that such person may file a written request for a hearing on the matters asserted [within] not later than fourteen days [of] after receipt of the notice.

(2) If a hearing is requested within the time specified in the notice, the commissioner shall hold a hearing upon the matters asserted in the notice unless such person fails to appear at the hearing. After the hearing, if the commissioner finds that the person has violated any such provision, regulation, rule or order, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion and in addition to any other remedy authorized by law, order that a civil penalty not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars per violation be imposed upon such person.
If such person does not request a hearing within the time specified in the notice or fails to appear at the hearing, the commissioner may, as the facts require, order that a civil penalty not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars per violation be imposed upon such person.

(3) Each action undertaken by the commissioner under this subsection shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54.

(b) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any such person has violated, is violating or is about to violate any such provision, regulation, rule or order, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion and in addition to any other remedy authorized by law: (1) Bring an action in the superior court for the judicial district of Hartford to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with any such provision, regulation, rule or order. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for such person or such person's assets. The court shall not require the commissioner to post a bond; (2) seek a court order imposing a penalty not to exceed one hundred thousand dollars per violation against any such person found to have violated any such provision, regulation, rule or order; or (3) apply to the superior court for the judicial district of Hartford for an order of restitution whereby such person shall be ordered to make restitution of any sums shown by the commissioner to have been obtained by such person in violation of any such provision, regulation, rule or order, plus interest at the rate set forth in section 37-3a. Such restitution shall, at the option of the court, be payable to the receiver or conservator appointed pursuant to this subsection, or directly to the person whose assets were obtained in violation of any such provision, regulation, rule or order. Whenever the commissioner prevails in any action brought under this subsection, the court may allow to the state its costs.

(c) Whenever the commissioner finds as the result of an investigation that any person has violated any provision of the general statutes within the jurisdiction of the commissioner, or any regulation, rule or order adopted or issued under such provisions, the commissioner may, in addition to any other remedy authorized by law, order such person to (1) make restitution of any sums shown to have been obtained in violation of any such provision, regulation, rule or order plus interest at the legal rate set forth in section 37-1; (2) provide disgorgement of any sums shown to have been obtained in violation of any such provision, regulation, rule or order; or (3) both make restitution and provide disgorgement in accordance with subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection. After the commissioner issues such an order, the person named in the order may, not later than fourteen days after the receipt of such order, file a written request for a hearing. The order shall be deemed received by the person on the earlier of the date of actual receipt or seven days after mailing or sending. Any such hearing shall be held in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54.

(2) The commissioner may suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any mortgage loan originator license or any loan processor or underwriter license or take any other action, in accordance with the provisions of section 36a-51, for any reason which would be sufficient grounds for the commissioner to deny an application for such license under sections 36a-485 to 36a-498f, inclusive, as amended by this act, 36a-534a and 36a-534b, as amended by this act, or if the commissioner finds that the licensee has committed any fraud, misappropriated funds, misrepresented, concealed, suppressed, intentionally omitted or otherwise intentionally failed to disclose any of the material particulars of any residential mortgage loan transaction or has violated any of the provisions of this title or of any regulations adopted pursuant to such title or any other law or regulation applicable to the conduct of such licensee's business.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to refinance an existing loan, the aggregate of the prepaid finance charges for the current refinancing and any previous financings by such licensee or exempt person or affiliate of such licensee or exempt person within two years of the current refinancing shall not exceed the greater of five per cent of the principal amount of the initial loan or two thousand dollars. The provisions of this section shall not prohibit such licensee or exempt person from charging, imposing or causing to be paid, directly or indirectly, prepaid finance charges in addition to those permitted by this section in connection with any additional proceeds received by the borrower in the refinancing, provided such prepaid finance charges on the additional proceeds shall not exceed five per cent of the additional proceeds.

underwriter licensee and each exempt registrant, to the extent required by the system, shall timely submit to the system accurate reports of condition that shall be in such form and shall contain such information as the system may require. Failure by a licensee to submit a timely and accurate report of condition shall constitute a violation of this provision. Failure of an exempt registrant to timely and accurately submit a report of condition shall form a basis to inactivate the licenses of all sponsored mortgage loan originators or loan processor or underwriters. To the extent that the system does not require submission of reports of condition by individual mortgage loan originator or loan processor or underwriter licensees, such individual licensees shall timely and accurately report all required information in their possession to their sponsor for purposes of their sponsor's accurately report required information in their possession to their

(2) "Commercial activities" means activities in which a bank holding company, as defined in 12 USC 1841(a)(1), a financial holding company, as defined in 12 USC 1841(p), a national banking association established under 12 USC 21, or a financial subsidiary of a national bank established under 12 USC 24a, may not engage under federal law.

(3) "Consolidate" means to combine within the same neighborhood, without substantially affecting the nature of the business or customers served, (A) two or more branches into a single branch; (B) one or more branches and one or more limited branches into a single branch or limited branch; (C) two or more limited branches into a single limited branch; or (D) one or more branches or limited branches into a main office.

(4) "Limited branch" means any office at a fixed location of a Connecticut bank at which banking business is conducted other than the main office, branch, mobile branch or loan production office.
(5) "Mobile branch" means any office of a Connecticut bank at which banking business is conducted which is in fact moved or transported to one or more predetermined locations in accordance with a predetermined schedule.

(6) "Relocate" means to move within the same immediate neighborhood without substantially affecting the nature of the business or customers served.

Sec. 21. Section 36a-145 of the general statutes is amended by adding subsection (o) as follows (Effective from passage):

(NEW) (o) With the approval of the commissioner, a Connecticut bank may establish a loan production office in this state.

Sec. 22. Subsection (f) of section 36a-261 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection (h) of this section, the Connecticut bank, in its discretion and for such a period as it deems advisable, may excuse the borrower on a mortgage loan from amortization of the principal of such loan, provided the governing board of the Connecticut bank, or a management committee or board committee appropriately designated by such governing board, has reviewed the particular mortgage loan and has determined such action to be prudent under the circumstances.

Sec. 23. Subsection (a) of section 36a-262 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the total direct or indirect liabilities of any one obligor that are not fully secured, however incurred, to any Connecticut bank, exclusive of such bank's investment in the investment securities of such obligor, shall not exceed at the time incurred fifteen per cent of the equity capital and reserves for loan and lease losses of such bank. The total direct or indirect liabilities of any one obligor that are fully secured, however incurred, to any Connecticut bank, exclusive of such bank's investment in the investment securities of such obligor, shall not exceed at the time incurred ten per cent of the equity capital and reserves for loan and lease losses of such bank, provided this limitation shall be separate from and in addition to the limitation on liabilities that are not fully secured. Notwithstanding any provision of this subsection, the limitation on the liabilities of any one obligor shall take into account the credit exposure to such obligor arising from a derivative transaction. The commissioner shall have the authority to establish the method for determining the credit exposure and the extent to which the credit exposure shall be taken into account. As used in this subsection, "derivative transaction" includes any transaction that is a contract, agreement, swap, warrant, note or option that is based, in whole or in part, on the value of any interest in, or any quantitative measure or the occurrence of any event leading to, one or more commodities, securities, currencies, interest or other rates, indices or other assets. The commissioner may adopt regulations in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54 establishing the method for determining credit exposure to derivative transactions and the extent to which the credit exposure shall be taken into account. For purposes of this section, a liability shall be considered to be fully secured if it is secured by readily marketable collateral having a market value, as determined by reliable and continuously available price quotations, at least equal to the amount of the liability. For purposes of determining the limitations of this section, in computing the liabilities of an obligor, a liability is incurred at the time of the closing of the transaction, unless such closing is preceded by a legally binding written commitment to enter into the transaction, in which case such liability is incurred at the time of commitment and is net of any liabilities of the obligor to such bank that will be paid with the proceeds of the commitment at the time of closing. The limitations provided for in this subsection may be exceeded for a period of time not to exceed six hours if at the closing of any transaction at which such obligor incurs such liabilities to a Connecticut bank in excess of such limitations, such bank immediately assigns or participates out to one or more other persons an amount that constitutes not less than the excess over the applicable limitation. Obligations as endorser or guarantor of negotiable or nonnegotiable installment consumer paper which carry an agreement to repurchase on default, unless the bank's sole recourse is to an agreed reserve held by it, in which case the liability shall be excluded, a full recourse endorsement or an unconditional guarantee by the person, partnership, association or corporation transferring the same, shall be subject under this section to a limitation of fifteen per cent of the bank's equity capital and reserves for loan and lease losses in addition to the applicable limitations of this section with respect to the makers of such obligations; provided, upon certification by an officer of the bank designated for that purpose by the governing board that the responsibility of each maker of such obligations has been evaluated and the bank is relying primarily upon each such maker for the payment of such obligations, the limitations of this section as to the obligations of each maker shall be the sole applicable loan limitation; and provided such certification shall be in writing and shall be retained as part of the records of such bank.

Sec. 24. Section 36a-380 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

(a) Except as provided in this section, no [corporation] entity, other than a bank or out-of-state bank that maintains in this state a branch as defined in section 36a-410, shall have or exercise in this state the power to receive, by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest or otherwise, any money, securities or other personal property, or any interest in real estate from any person [or corporation] in trust, to hold, manage or dispose of the same for the benefit of any third person, [or corporation,] or to accept or execute any such trust, unless such [corporation] entity is specifically empowered so to act by a general statute of this state or by a special act of the General Assembly. Any [corporation] entity so empowered to act as trustee, other than such bank or out-of-state bank, shall, before so acting, obtain a license from the commissioner as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) (1) Application for such license shall be in writing upon forms to be furnished by the commissioner and shall contain the full name and address of the applicant [corporation] entity and of each of its principals and officers and a statement of the assets and liabilities of such [corporation] entity in such form as the commissioner requires. If, upon examination of such application and upon any further investigation that the commissioner deems necessary, the commissioner is satisfied that such [corporation] entity is solvent and conducting its business according to law, the commissioner may issue to such [corporation] entity a license to receive property in trust and to execute and administer trusts to the extent and in the manner authorized by the charter, certificate of incorporation, partnership agreement, articles of association, articles of organization or similar document, as applicable, of such [corporation] entity or by any general or special law of this state, but not otherwise. If it appears to the commissioner that any such applicant [corporation] entity is insolvent, or that its business is being conducted contrary to law or to the provisions of its charter, certificate of incorporation, partnership agreement, articles of association, articles of organization or similar document, as applicable, the commissioner shall refuse to issue such license.

(2) In connection with an application for such license and at any other time, the commissioner may, in accordance with section 29-17a, arrange for a criminal history records check requiring the fingerprinting of each principal [, executive officer and director of the corporation] and officer of the entity or conducting of any other method of positive identification of such individuals required by the State Police Bureau of Identification.

(c) As used in sections 36a-380 to 36a-386, inclusive, as amended by this act, "entity" means corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, limited partnership, unincorporated organization, limited liability company or similar organization, but does not include any corporation of which the majority of the shares are owned by the United States or by any state.

Sec. 25. Section 36a-381 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The provisions of sections 36a-380 to 36a-386, inclusive, as amended by this act, shall not apply to the administration of: (1) Any trust for cemetery purposes by an incorporated cemetery association; (2) any charitable, religious or educational trust by [a corporation] an entity organized for charitable, religious or educational purposes; (3) any trust by a life insurance company of the proceeds of its insurance policies; (4) any trust by [a corporation] an entity without compensation and not as a part of its regular business; (5) any trust in real or personal property the trustee of which is a corporation acting pursuant to the provisions of section 45a-206; (6) any trust the trustee of which is [a corporation] acting as trustee under mortgage pursuant to the provisions of section 36a-395; or (7) any trust the trustee of which is [a corporation] an out-of-state trust company acting pursuant to section 36a-434a.

Sec. 26. Section 36a-382 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The commissioner shall annually or more often examine each [corporation] entity licensed under sections 36a-380 to 36a-386, inclusive, as amended by this act, and special acts 93-12, 93-19 and 93-20, any provision in the charter of any such [corporation] entity to the contrary notwithstanding, and shall require that such [corporation] entity file an annual report in such form as the commissioner may prescribe and such other reports as the commissioner may require.
Each such licensed [corporation] entity shall pay the cost of such examination as determined by the commissioner and shall, in addition, pay to the commissioner an annual license fee of one hundred dollars.
Such license fee shall be payable [on] not later than the thirtieth day of June in each year and the fee for licenses granted upon any other date shall be prorated to the thirtieth day of June next following the issuance thereof, provided no fee for the unexpired portion of any license year shall be less than twenty dollars.

Sec. 27. Section 36a-383 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

If it at any time appears to the commissioner that any [corporation] entity so licensed has failed to comply with a cease and desist order issued by the commissioner or is insolvent or likely to become insolvent, the commissioner may revoke such license in accordance with section 36a-51 and apply to the superior court for the judicial district of Hartford or the judicial district in which such [corporation] entity is located for an injunction restraining such [corporation] entity from continuing to receive property in trust and restraining it from administering any and all trusts including such as may be then in force and effect, and for an order appointing some suitable person to succeed such [corporation] entity as trustee of any trust property then in its possession or in or to which it has any right, title, interest or claim, or for any other or further order as appears to the court as necessary or advisable to protect and secure the interests of the beneficiaries of any such trust property. The court, after reasonable notice to such [corporation] entity and hearing thereon, may issue such injunction or other order or grant such other equitable relief as the facts may warrant and, pending such hearing, the court may issue such temporary injunction or restraining order as the court deems equitable.

Sec. 28. Section 36a-384 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

The securities and investments of each trust committed to any such [corporation] entity so licensed shall be set apart and segregated and shall not be mingled with the securities and investments of any other trust or of the [corporation] entity. Any undistributed or temporarily uninvested cash held by such [corporation] entity as trustee shall be deposited in the name of the trust or in the name of the [corporation] entity as trustee in a bank, provided, when any such undistributed or uninvested cash is deposited in the name of the [corporation] entity as trustee, such deposits shall be so identified on the books of the [corporation] entity as to disclose the beneficial ownership thereof.

Sec. 29. Section 36a-385 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2012):

No such [corporation] entity so licensed shall use, either as a part of its name, or as a prefix or suffix thereto, or as a designation of the business carried on by it, the word "bank", "banking", "banker", "bankers", "trust" or "savings", notwithstanding any provision of the charter, certificate of incorporation, partnership agreement, articles of association, articles of organization or similar document, as applicable, of any such [corporation to the contrary] entity.

Sec. 30. Subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 36a-412 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

(2) Any out-of-state bank, other than a foreign bank, may, with the approval of the commissioner, and in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, establish a de novo branch in this state. [Such establishment shall not take place unless the laws of the home state of such out-of-state bank authorize, under conditions no more restrictive than those imposed by the laws of this state, as determined by the commissioner, a bank to establish a de novo branch in the home state of such out-of-state bank, provided the commissioner may waive such reciprocity requirement for the establishment of a de novo branch the activities of which are limited to the exercise of fiduciary or trust powers if the commissioner finds that such establishment will result in net new benefits to this state. Any request for such waiver of reciprocity submitted by an out-of-state bank shall include a detailed statement of the reasons for the request and statistical and other information to support a finding of such net new benefits.] Any such establishment shall be effected in accordance with and subject to the filing requirements and any limitations imposed by section 36a-145, as amended by this act. Any such out-of-state bank that engages in business in this state shall comply with the requirements of section 33-920 or subsection (a) of section 33-1210. Before approving any such establishment, the commissioner shall make such considerations, determinations and findings as required by section 36a-145, as amended by this act, and, in addition, shall consider whether such establishment can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public and whether such benefits clearly outweigh possible adverse effects, including, but not limited to, an undue concentration of resources and decreased or unfair competition. The commissioner shall not approve such establishment unless the commissioner considers whether: (A) The investment and lending policies of the out-of-state bank are consistent with safe and sound banking practices and will benefit the economy of this state; (B) the proposed services of the branch are consistent with safe and sound banking practices and will benefit the economy of this state; (C) the establishment will not substantially lessen competition in this state; (D) the out-of-state bank is adequately managed and will continue to be adequately managed upon establishment of such branch; and (E) the out-of-state bank is in compliance with applicable minimum capital requirements. The commissioner shall not approve such establishment unless the commissioner makes the findings required by section 36a-34. An out-of-state bank which has established a de novo branch in this state in accordance with this subdivision may establish additional branches in this state, provided the activities of such additional branches of an out-of-state bank for which the commissioner waived such reciprocity requirement shall be limited to the exercise of fiduciary or trust powers. As used in this subdivision, "net new benefits" means (i) initial capital investments, including any new construction, (ii) job creation plans, including, but not limited to, the number of jobs to be created and the average wage rates for each category of such jobs, (iii) the potential for increasing state and municipal tax revenues from increased economic activity and increased employment, (iv) consumer and business services and other benefits to the state, local community and citizens, and (v) such other matters as the commissioner may deem necessary or advisable.]

Sec. 31. Section 36a-412 of the general statutes is amended by adding subsection (d) as follows (Effective from passage):

(NEW) (d) With the approval of the commissioner, any out-of-state bank, other than a foreign bank, may establish a loan production office in this state.

Sec. 32. Subdivision (1) of subsection (i) of section 47a-21 of the 2012 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

(i) (1) On and after July 1, 1993, each landlord other than a landlord of a residential unit in any building owned or controlled by any educational institution and used by such institution for the purpose of housing students of such institution and their families, and each landlord or owner of a mobile manufactured home or of a mobile manufactured home space or lot or park, as such terms are defined in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of section 21-64, shall pay interest on each security deposit received by [him] such landlord at a rate of not less than the average rate paid, as of December 30, 1992, on savings deposits by insured commercial banks as published in the Federal Reserve Board Bulletin rounded to the nearest one-tenth of one percentage point, except in no event shall the rate be less than one and one-half per cent. On and after January 1, [2012] 1994, the rate for each calendar year shall be not less than the deposit index, as defined in subdivision (2) of this subsection, for that year, except in no event shall the rate be less than one and one-half per cent. On and after January 1, 2012, the rate for each calendar year shall be not less than the deposit index, as defined in subdivision (2) of this subsection, for that year. On the anniversary date of the tenancy and annually thereafter, such interest shall be paid to the tenant or resident or credited toward the next rental payment due from the tenant or resident, as the landlord or owner shall determine. If the tenancy is terminated before the anniversary date of such tenancy, or if the landlord or owner returns all or part of a security deposit prior to termination of the tenancy, the landlord or owner shall pay the accrued interest to the tenant or resident not later than thirty days after such termination or return. In any case where a tenant or resident has been delinquent for more than ten days in the payment of any monthly rent, such resident or tenant shall forfeit any interest that would otherwise be payable to such resident or tenant for that month, except that there shall be no such forfeiture if, pursuant to a provision of the rental agreement, a late charge is imposed for failure to pay such rent within the time period provided by section 47a-15a. No landlord or owner shall increase the rent due on any quarters or property subject to the provisions of this section because of the requirement that interest be paid on any security deposit made with respect to such quarters or property.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following
