

for the duration of the original IID period, and shall be extended for the length of time that such suspension was in effect and if applicable, for any additional time specified in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) For each violation of the IID restriction, as defined in section 14-227a-12a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, the duration of the operator's IID restriction shall be extended by thirty (30) days. The unauthorized removal of a device shall also result in an additional extension of the IID restriction for a period equal to the time that the operator did not have a device on a motor vehicle.

[(1) The person fails to have the IID device inspected not less than every sixty (60) days;

(2) The person tampers with or causes another to tamper with the installed IID device; or

(3) The person's operator's license or privilege is suspended by the commissioner for any reason.]

(b) The [person] operator shall be provided with written notice and an opportunity for a hearing, held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 54 of the Connecticut General Statutes, to contest the proposed suspension or revocation [at a hearing to be held in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 54 of the Connecticut General Statutes] of permission to operate with an IID or for the extension of the IID period under one or more provisions of sections 14-227a-11a through 14-227a-28a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(c) In addition to taking any action authorized by subsection [(a)] (b) of this section, if the commissioner becomes aware of any reliable information that a person who has been permitted to operate a motor vehicle equipped with an [device] IID has requested or solicited another person to blow into an [ignition interlock device] IID or to start a motor vehicle equipped with an [ignition interlock device] IID for the purpose of providing such person with an operable motor vehicle, in violation of subsection (a) of section 14-227k of the Connecticut General Statutes, or that such person or any other person has tampered with, altered or bypassed the operation of IID [device] in order to use such vehicle for transportation purposes in violation of subsection (b) of section 14-227k of the Connecticut General Statutes, the commissioner shall report such information to the appropriate law enforcement or prosecuting authority. If the commissioner receives reliable information that an operator has requested or solicited another person to provide a breath sample for the IID, the commissioner may require that such person install a device with biometric capabilities or that is equipped with a camera.
