

Gentleman:

Other than providing work for web designers, what possible benefit would this bill have? Learning on line is perfectly legitimate for subjects that are fact based and require no emotional safety warnings. Boating and guns are dangerous activities and need to be instructed carefully and with a substantial opportunity for feedback and questions.

Why dot allow teenagers to take an on line drivers test and then send them out to the streets to drive? Same idea applies...do not let this bill pass

Richard paul
368 Deerfield rd
Pomfret center, ct
06259

Sent from my iPad