

As a concerned citizen and licensed boater I am writing to say that I believe boating and weapon licensing should not be an on line course. I feel that in person hands on learning is the way to go.

Scott Deringer
Sent from my iPhone