

Housing Committee re public hearing re:bill 6121

Bill 6121 helps correct one of the flaws of 8-30g. It moves in the right direction of protecting Connecticut's water by putting some limit on the activities that are allowed by affordable housing when they endanger our watersheds. Affordable housing is a necessary activity but there is no reason why it should endanger our natural resources.

Benjamin Oko 11 Barlow Mountain Road, Ridgefield, Ct.
Member, Ridgefield Conservation Commission and board of CACIWC