

HB 5299

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to you as a concerned parent. I believe it is the responsibility of anyone who can, to help another person in need. There is no reason if a nurse is not available that a responsible trained adult not be allowed to administer a potentially life saving, prescription medication to a child having a seizure. Doing nothing could be catastrophic and I believe irresponsible.

Please strongly consider passing this bill

Susan Pinzon