

SB 374

This bill will waste time, money and resources where they would be far better served to help the families who are seeking behavioral health services for their children. Besides being an enormous waste of resources, this bill is an evasion of privacy. We are tired of battling bill after bill in this state that seeks to take away our freedoms.

Sincerely,

Bridget Bethray