

I am opposed to this bill - I believe these matters should be handled by families rather than the state. It is an invasion of privacy, and will be expensive to implement and enforce.

I do believe this is an important issue and there are other ways the legislature might help support families, like incentivizing such assessments or providing counseling for families with children who have special behavioral needs.

Thank you,

Dan Field
200 Coles Rd.
Cromwell, CT 06416
dfield@gmail.com