

Please amend Senate Bill 129 to allow the admission of new patients to Southbury Training School. This policy should never have been eliminated. These special need residents' need the care and attention afforded them by a facility such as STS.

It is questionable whether the decision to stop the new admissions was made to make, you, the lawmakers feel better or the patients feel better. Remember, it is NOT about you.

Heidi Shea
Middlebury