

General Assembly

January Session, 2013

Raised Bill No. 1047

LCO No. 3897

Referred to Committee on JUDICIARY

Introduced by:
(JUD)

AN ACT BANNING LARGE CAPACITY AMMUNITION MAGAZINES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. (NEW) (Effective January 1, 2014) (a) As used in this
2 section, "large capacity magazine" means any detachable ammunition
3 feeding device with the capacity to accept more than ten rounds of 4 ammunition, but does not include: (1) A feeding device that has been
5 permanently altered so that it cannot accommodate more than ten
6 rounds, (2) a .22 caliber tube ammunition feeding device, or (3) a
7 tubular magazine that is contained in a lever-action firearm.

8 (b) Any person who possesses a large capacity magazine shall be
9 guilty of a class D felony.

10 (c) Any person who (1) prior to the effective date of this section,
11 lawfully possessed a large capacity magazine, and (2) not later than 12 April 1, 2014, removes such magazine from this state or surrenders
13 such magazine to an organized local police department or the 14 Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection for 15 destruction, shall not be subject to prosecution for a violation of 16 subsection (b) of this section.

17 (d) The provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to 18 the possession of a large capacity magazine by:

19 (1) Members or employees of organized local police departments,
20 the Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection, the 21 Department of Correction or the military or naval forces of this state or 22 of the United States for use in the discharge of their official duties;

23 (2) A person, corporation or other entity that manufactures large
24 capacity magazines for persons specified in subdivision (1) of this 25 subsection or for export in accordance with federal regulations;

26 (3) Any person engaged in the business of selling or transferring
27 large capacity magazines in accordance with state and federal 28 regulations who possesses such magazines solely for the purpose of 29 such sale or transfer; or

30 (4) A gunsmith who possesses such large capacity magazine for the 31 purpose of maintenance, repair or modification.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:
Section 1	January 1, 2014	New section

Statement of Purpose:

To prohibit the possession of certain ammunition feeding devices that accept more than ten rounds.
