

Kess, Quinn

From: Jeep@siegert.us
Sent: Monday, February 11, 2013 11:46 AM
To: Kess, Quinn
Cc: Rep. Lavielle, Gail; CTRailCommuterCouncil@gmail.com
Subject: Supporting HB 5127

Why commuters have allowed MetroNorth to get away with not giving some credit for bad service is a mystery.

Today my line, Westport to GC is "limited service" but for understandable, unique reasons. No big deal.

But, the poor folks at Danbury are appear to be shafted on a regular basis with no recourse. That kind of situation should prompt some revenue implications for the railroad that might eventually lead to better service.

- Allan