I received an email from my Senator, John A. Kissel, advising me to write to you with my testimony saying, "Together, we can stop tolls from being built on our borders."

The trouble is, I'm in favor of establishing tolls in Connecticut. Of course, it can be viewed as another tax, but we need the revenue. Mr Kissel says it may "possibly set off a toll war in New England" except that many other states in New England as well as New York State expect me and other constituents of Mr Kissel's to pay tolls to use their roads.

I believe we should have tolls at the state borders on limited access roads. Please read my testimony into the record since I will be unable to appear at the public hearing on Monday.
