I am totally opposed to the tolls at the state's borders. I live on the border of Connecticut and Massachussettes and pass back and forth often. People in Massachussettes will be less likely to come to Connecticut to shop, frequent restaurants, and conduct business. Senator John Kissell is correct in his opinion that our economy will suffer even more than it already is. In addition, my own family would be impacted significantly because my husband has to cross the border for work every day. It is hard enough that the price of gas is out of control. As a side note, I am disappointed that these hearings are always held in the middle of the week when the hard working people, that this and many other topics will affect, are not able to attend because they are hard at work trying to make ends meet. The Governor of this state has been reckless with his spending and is driving the economy in our state so far down it almost feels hopeless we'll ever get out of debt and be the prosperous state we once were. This Bill will just add to the problem and hurt the pockets of loyal residents of this state. Stop being irresponsible and spending money the state doesn't have on projects we don't need (the Busway, for example) and stop trying to make the residents spend more money that they just don't have to contribute. We're all taxed out!

Sincerely,
