

I as a southbury resident would look favorably on preserving this great ag lands for future generations to farm ,also instead of the state of conn spending monies to preserve land this would cost nothing to do because they allready own it. The state lets this place fall into serious disrepair with no money to up keep it ,i can remember when this place was a booming farm now its a total discrace

DAVE BLERSCH

6542